The End of Government... as We Know it: Making Public Policy Work

Elaine Ciulla Kamarck, 2024-11-01 In the last decades of the 20th century many political leaders declared that government was in the words of Ronald Reagan the problem not the solution But on closer inspection argues Elaine Kamarck the revolt against government was and is a revolt against bureaucracy a revolt that has taken place in first world developing and avowedly communist countries alike To some this looks like the end of government Kamarck however counters that what we are seeing is the replacement of the traditional bureaucratic approach with new models more in keeping with the information age economy The End of Government explores the emerging contours of this new postbureaucratic state the sequel to government as we know it considering What forms will it take Will it work in all policy arenas Will it serve democratic ideals more effectively than did the bureaucratic state of the previous century Perhaps most significantly how will leadership be redefined in these new circumstances Kamarck s provocative work makes it clear that in addition to figuring out what to do today s government leaders face an unprecedented number of options when it comes to how to do things The challenge of government increasingly will be to choose an implementation mode match it to a policy problem and manage it well in the postbureaucratic world

Physicians of the Future Rosalynn A. Vega, 2024-05-21 The first scholarly exploration of the forums practice and economics of functional medicine Physicians of the Future interrogates the hidden logics of inclusion and exclusion in functional medicine FM a holistic form of personalized medicine that targets chronic disease Rosalynn Vega uncovers how as wounded healers some FM practitioners who are former chronic disease sufferers turn their illness narratives into a form of social capital leveraging social media to relate to patients and build practices as doctor influencers Arguing that power and authority operate distinctly in FM when compared to conventional medicine largely because FM services are paid for out of pocket by socioeconomically privileged clients Vega studies how FM practitioners engage in entrepreneurship of their own while critiquing the profit motives of the existing healthcare system pharmaceutical industry and insurance industry Using data culled from online support groups conferences docuseries blogs podcasts YouTube and TED Talks as well as her own battles with chronic illness Vega argues that FM practices prioritize the individual while inadvertently reinscribing inequities based on race and class Ultimately she opens avenues of possibility for FM interlocutors wrestling with their responsibility for making functional medicine accessible to all
