The Art of Curating Worship Mark Pierson, 2012 Mark Pierson is a strikingly original thinker and practitioner whose influence on alternative worship and emerging church forms has spread worldwide Whatever our church tradition liturgical evangelical charismatic or alternative Mark s challenge is clear tired patterns of worship do not engage with people beyond the regular congregation and sometimes not even with them The last place that many genuine spiritual seekers would try is church He shows a way of thinking about and practicing worship where real connection with God can happen The idea of curating rather than leading worship invites a potentially huge mind shift about worship practice Leading worship is not about staying in control of content or delivery but about exploring creatively the riches of our traditions the arts our buildings music and language to offer worship that better reflects the glory of God This inspiring practical book raises the bar in terms of what we expect from worship and then gives us the courage vision and resources to bring it about

Audioliterary Poetry between Performance and Mediatization / Audioliterale Lyrik zwischen Performance und Mediatisierung Marc Matter, Henrik Wehmeier, Clara Cosima Wolff, 2024-10-21 This book critically examines how the production and reception of performed poetry has changed in the wake of digitalization The interdisciplinary chapters in this volume deal with fundamental questions confronting performed poetry in the digital age How are concepts like liveness and performativity being adapted to mediatized digital environments How are platforms like YouTube Instagram and TikTok helping to popularize performed poetry and what online formats are emerging How is the ubiquity of digital technologies transforming fields like experimental sound poetry and how are they performed on stage Bringing together authors from various countries and disciplines this volume addresses diverse topics such as the evolution of poetry readings in Scandinavia poetry slams as political criticism and a social practice in Brazil the UK the US and Italy the performance of AI poetry posthuman entanglements between gendered bodies and technological devices in experimental sound poetry the aesthetics and practices of poetic activism on the street and social media and how recordings of performed poetry are being circulated in our current platformized digital environment

Building Inclusive Cities Carolyn Whitzman, Crystal Legacy, Caroline Andrew, Fran Klodawsky, Margaret Shaw, Kalpana Viswanath, 2013-03-05 Building on a growing movement within developing countries in Latin America Africa and Asia Pacific as well as Europe and North America this book documents cutting edge practice and builds theory around a rights based approach to women s safety in the context of poverty reduction and social inclusion Drawing upon two decades of research and grassroots action on safer cities for women and everyone this book is about the right to an inclusive city The first part of the book describes the challenges that women face regarding access to essential services housing security liveability and mobility The second part of the book critically examines programs projects and ideas that are working to make cities safer Building Inclusive Cities takes a cross cultural learning perspective from action research occurring throughout the world and translates this research into theoretical conceptualizations to inform the literature on planning and urban management in both developing and developed countries This book is intended to inspire both thought and action

Toward a Ludic Architecture Steffen P. Walz, 2010 Toward a Ludic Architecture is a pioneering publication architecturally framing play and games as human practices in and of space Filling the gap in literature Steffen P Walz considers game design theory and practice alongside architectural theory and practice asking how are play and games architected What kind of architecture do they produce and in what way does architecture program play and games What kind of architecture could be produced by playing and gameplaying Dynamic Perspectives on Creativity Ronald A.

Beghetto, Giovanni Emanuele Corazza, 2019-01-17 This edited volume provides a venue for scholars whose work challenges the typical static conceptions and methods of studying creativity More specifically the book will serve as an effort to introduce more dynamic definitions conceptions and approaches for studying creativity in the context of educational practice By doing so it feeds the strong contemporary need for more dynamic conceptions of creativity in educational settings This is particularly important given the fast evolution of modern society and the widespread consensus that efforts to develop creative potential should be democratized extending well beyond the boundaries of the gifted subset and the walls of the classroom This work recognizes that more dynamic perspectives on creativity are necessary for understanding its complexity value and meaning in educational contexts Religion and Human Rights John Witte, M. Christian Green, 2012 The relationship between religion and human rights is both complex and inextricable While most of the world's religions have supported violence repression and prejudice each has also played a crucial role in the modern struggle for universal human rights Most importantly religions provide the essential sources and scales of dignity and responsibility shame and respect restraint and regret restitution and reconciliation that a human rights regime needs to survive and flourish in any culture This volume provides authoritative examinations of the contributions to human rights of Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism Confucianism Buddhism and indigenous religions Each chapter grapples with the concept and origins of human rights and offers insight into the major human rights issues that confront religious individuals and communities These include core issues of freedom of religious conscience choice exercise expression association morality and self determination They also include analysis of the roles of religious ideas and institutions in the cultivation and abridgement of rights of women children and minorities and rights to peace orderly development and protection of nature and the environment With contributions by a score of leading experts Religion and Human Rights provides authoritative and accessible assessments of the contributions of Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism Confucianism Buddhism and Indigenous religions to the development of the ideas and institutions of human rights It also probes the major human rights issues that confront religious individuals and communities around the world today and the main challenges that the world's religions will pose to the human rights regime in the future
