The several lives of Chester Himes ,1997

The Writings of Chester Himes are colored by a fascinating blend of hatred and tenderness of hard boiled realism and generous idealism His life was complex his relationships complicated How did this gifted son of a respectable southern black family become a juvenile delinquent How did he acquire self esteem and a new sense of identity by writing short stories while in the Ohio state penitentiary Drawn from his letters notebooks memoirs and fiction this straightforward account of Himes s varied episodic life attempts to trace the origins of his significant literary gift It details the socioeconomic familial and cultural background that fed his ambivalent views on race in America His Deep South childhood his adolescence in the Midwest his young manhood in prison his years as a menial laborer his struggle as an author in California and New York City and finally his glory days as an expatriate and celebrity in France and Spain are plumbed deeply for their effects upon his creative urges and his works In his native country Himes is recalled more as the author of successful detective novels such as Cotton Comes to Harlem than as a practitioner of the art of fiction In France and Spain his adopted countries he is regarded as a literary master This critical biography is the bittersweet story of a troubled man who found salvation in writing

Copyright Office,1962 Translation and Big Details Jeroen Vandaele,2023-12-11 In the age of big data evidence keeps suggesting that small elusive and infrequent details make all the difference in our appreciation of humanistic texts film fiction and philosophy This book argues from a cross disciplinary perspective that expertise in humanistic translation is precisely the capacity to capture those details that are bigger than they seem In humanistic translation the expert handling of big details usually serves audiences and the original but mala fide translation also works the details for subtle manipulation and audience deception A focus on textual detail is therefore characteristic of humanistic translators but also compatible with central claims of the cultural turn in translation studies This book written by a scholar and teacher of literary essayistic and audiovisual translation endeavors to articulate a seemingly dual interest on textual detail and cultural analysis as a single one It theorizes connections between micro and macro analysis between translation as detail and translation as culture thus hoping to build bridges between humanistic translators and translation scholars It acknowledges tensions between practice and theory and proposes a way forward practitioners and scholars share ways of thinking varieties of part whole thinking that machines can never acquire Subject Index of the Modern Works Added to the British Museum Library ,1974 Our Homes and Gardens ,1929 The Bookseller ,1914
