The Higher Education Act (HEA) Alexandra Hegji,2017 The Higher Education ACT (Hea) Hegji,2014-10-31 The Higher Education Act of 1965 authorizes numerous federal aid programs that provide support to both individuals pursuing a post secondary education and institutions of higher education IHEs Title IV of the HEA authorizes the federal government s major student aid programs which are the primary source of direct federal support to students pursuing post secondary education The Higher Education Act Congressional Research Service,2015-01-16 The Higher Education Act of 1965 HEA P L 89 329 authorizes numerous federal aid programs that provide support to both individuals pursuing a postsecondary education and institutions of higher education IHEs Title IV of the HEA authorizes the federal government s major student aid programs which are the primary source of direct federal support to students pursuing postsecondary education Titles II III and V of the HEA provide institutional aid and support Additionally the HEA authorizes services and support for less advantaged students select Title IV programs students pursing international education Title VI and students pursuing and institutions offering certain graduate and professional degrees Title VII Finally the most recently added title Title VIII authorizes several other programs that support higher education The HEA was last comprehensively reauthorized in 2008 by the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 HEOA P L 110 315 which authorized most HEA programs through FY2014 Following the enactment of the HEAO the HEA has been amended by numerous other laws most notably the SAFRA Act part of the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010 P L 111 152 which terminated the authority to make federal student loans through the Federal Family Education Loan FFEL program Authorization of appropriations for many HEA programs expired at the end of FY2014 but has been extended through FY2015 under the General Education Provisions Act This report provides a brief overview of the major provisions of the HEA Normalizing an American Right to Health Christina S. Ho,2023 Normalizing an American Right to Health argues against the conventional wisdom that a U S right to health is out of reach It shows that the necessary change is not extraordinary but familiar and that the law has already laid considerable groundwork in ordinary statutes and case law The book moves from the descriptive task of showing where a right to health already exists in our legal corpus to the prescriptive goal of showing how we could feasibly and meaningfully expand the right through ordinary policies that are widely used in other domains including impact assessments and state sponsored reinsurance No Child Left Behind Primer Frederick M. Hess,Michael J. Petrilli,2006 Hess is a specialist in education policy at the American Enterprise Institute and Harvard U Petrilli is with the Thomas B Fordham Foundation a Washington based school reform organization They offer a concise guide to the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 NCLB covering the history and key elements of the law how it is intended to work how i Accountability in Higher Education: Navigating Current Issues and Trends Singleton, Topeka Small,2025-03-28 Accountability in higher education has become a critical issue as higher education institutions face scrutiny over student outcomes financial transparency and the value of a college degree As the cost of tuition is on the rise and student debt growing the concerns on equitability and the concerns of student engagement have left many in the public to lose trust in higher education From government regulations to accreditation standards and data driven assessment models accountability measures are evolving to ensure that higher education remains both effective and accessible As the public become more distrustful of higher education discussing the problems issues is effective in seeking change Accountability in Higher Education Navigating Current Issues and Trends explores the current trends and issues with accountability in higher education It discusses how accountability in higher education is essential and is the most impactful This book covers topics such as accountability diversity and inclusion and educational training and is a useful resource higher education professionals who seek to know more about navigating the landscape of accountability in higher education

Curriculum, Schooling and Applied Research Jennifer Donovan, Karen Trimmer, Nicholas Flegg, 2020-10-15 This book explores how teachers can navigate the complex process of managing change within the classroom The chapters highlight the new challenges that have arisen with the emergence and introduction of educational technology as teachers find themselves having to be responsive to the needs and demands of multiple stakeholders Traversing a range of conceptual disciplinary and methodological boundaries the editors and contributors investigate the tensions that impinge on research based change and how to integrate directed changes into their education system and classroom Subsequently this volume argues that posing these questions leads to increased understanding of the possible long term effects of educational change and how teachers can know whether their solutions are effective

A Primer on the Higher Education Act (HEA). , 2007

Comparative Higher Education Politics Jens Jungblut, Martin Maltais, Erik C. Ness, Deanna Rexe, 2023-05-12 This volume provides an overview of the state of the art of research on the politics of higher education policy in Canada the US and Western Europe Each thematic chapter combines an extensive literature review with original empirical work that further advances our understanding of policymaking dynamics in higher education The book covers five key aspects of policymaking namely the politics of governance as well as funding reforms the role of interest groups policy diffusion and policy framing These aspects are explored using a unique comparative design that combines comparisons within as well as between regions and among the five key aspects of policymaking The conceptual framework is anchored in approaches from institutional theory namely sociological and historical institutionalism This rare book coherently focuses on the same critical challenges that higher education faces in a changing global and national environment These include vital governance and finance issues and how these are framed and contested by different organizations and interest groups as well as state actors Within a broad institutionalist framework that reflects the tensions between historical university and national legacies on the one hand and regional and global influences on the other the authors focus on policymaking in Western Europe Canada and the US This is an engaging and creative endeavor a must read for scholars and policymakers alike

Francisco O Ramirez Graduate School of Education Stanford University This is a real achievement that will contribute to the development of research in politics of higher education policy finance and economic development It is timely in an era when higher learning is increasingly salient to national policy interest groups and supranational bodies such as the EU The focus on Canada the US and Europe frames a comparative approach to a competitive higher educational policy arena that has not received systematic study Sheila Slaughter Louise McBee Institute of Higher Education University of Georgia This fills a gaping hole in research on the politics of higher education In bringing together research perspectives from governance studies with comparative public policy as well as scholars from Europe and Northern America this volume will serve as an important reference point for a rapidly growing research field The exceptionally high quality of editorship is documented by the fact that the chapters are convincingly subsumed under five sub themes In short A must read for any researcher and student interested in understanding the political foundations of higher education Marius R Busemeyer Department of Politics and Public Administration University of Konstanz American Public Policy Dennis W.

Johnson,2022-09-15 This is a sweeping narrative of American domestic public policy its triumphs struggles and failures over the past 120 years In a larger sense it is a reflection on how the United States has grown and matured faced challenges and opportunities and how its federal leaders and policymakers have responded or failed to confront pressing problems Moreover American Public Policy addresses the hurdles and challenges that still lie ahead Four critical questions are posed and answered First what were the most significant adversities endured by the American people Second what were the landmark domestic policies crafted by the president enacted by Congress or issued in Supreme Court decisions Third what did they fail to do Finally how well have federal policymakers met the key challenges facing America income inequality racism financial crises terrorist attacks climate change gun violence and other pressures And what do we still need to do This book reaches out to students of public policy American government US history and contemporary affairs as well as to citizens journalists and policy practitioners A Primer on Minority Serving Institutions Andrés Castro Samayoa,Marybeth

Gasman,2019-02-01 Minority Serving Institutions MSIs specifically Historically Black Colleges and Universities HBCUs Tribal Colleges and Universities TCUs Hispanic Serving Institutions HSIs and Asian American and Native American Pacific Islander Serving Institutions AANAPISIs have carved out a unique niche in the nation serving the needs of low income underrepresented students of color Covering foundational topics relating to MSIs chapter authors explore how salient issues across the landscape of higher education play out within the MSI context Undergirded by national data and key literature A Primer on Minority Serving Institutions provides graduate students scholars and researchers a full picture of the work and contributions of MSIs and urges them to think about MSIs as part of the larger higher education landscape Collaborative Thinking Sarah K.A. Pfatteicher,2025-09-02 This book offers a comprehensive guide to the structure funding governance and benefits of higher education collaborations while providing practical advice for fostering successful partnerships and avoiding common pitfalls Provided by publisher Building America's Skilled Technical Workforce National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine,National Academy of Engineering,Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education,Policy and Global Affairs,Board on Science Education,Board on Higher Education and Workforce,Board on Science, Technology, and Economic Policy,Committee on the Supply Chain for Middle-Skill Jobs: Education, Training, and

Certification Pathways,2017-05-04 Skilled technical occupations defined as occupations that require a high level of knowledge in a technical domain but do not require a bachelor s degree for entry are a key component of the U S economy In response to globalization and advances in science and technology American firms are demanding workers with greater proficiency in literacy and numeracy as well as strong interpersonal technical and problem solving skills However employer surveys and industry and government reports have raised concerns that the nation may not have an adequate supply of skilled technical workers to achieve its competitiveness and economic growth objectives In response to the broader need for policy information and advice Building America s Skilled Technical Workforce examines the coverage effectiveness flexibility and coordination of the policies and various programs that prepare Americans for skilled technical jobs This report provides action oriented recommendations for improving the American system of technical education training and certification
