Mistress of the House, Mistress of Heaven Anne K. Capel, Glenn Markoe, 1996 The first of its kind exhibit cataloged here focuses on the women of Egypt from all levels of society in works compiled strictly from American collections by American curators Because the quantity of written records is limited though enormous in comparison to most early societies there is still much guesswork involved in determining the place women held in Egyptian society It is clear that unlike most ancient and not so ancient societies Egypt conferred on women the legal right to own property and to barter their own goods which means a larger record for current study The essays here are both erudite and fascinating to read the illustrations are clear and well presented in conjunction with the text 117 colour 112 b w illustrations Tausret Richard H. Wilkinson, 2012-03-21 This book is a collection of essays discussing the reign and influence of Tausret the last pharaoh of the 19th dynasty c twelfth century BCE and one of only a few women who ruled ancient Egypt as a king during its history
