detailed chapter summaries which can still stand for a broad subject approach The London Stamp Exchange added indexes of ships and officers compiled by Captain Douglas Morris R N Retd whose enthusiasm for the Indian Navy and its medals was largely responsible for the reissue of Low A History of the Book in America: Volume 1, The Colonial Book in the Atlantic World Hugh Amory, David D. Hall, 2000 Volume 1 of A History of the Book in America The Colonial Book in the Atlantic World encompasses the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries It is organized around three major themes the persisting colonial relationship between European settlements and the Old World the gradual emergence of a pluralistic book trade that differentiated printers from booksellers and the transition from a culture of the Word organized around an understanding of print as a vehicle of the sacred to the culture of republicanism epitomized by Benjamin Franklin and culminating in the uses of print during the Revolutionary era The volume will also describe nascent forms of literary and learned culture including the circulation of manuscripts literacy and censorship orality and the efforts by Europeans to introduce written literary to Native Americans and African Americans The Gold and the Blue, Volume One Clark Kerr, 2001-10-16 One of the last century's most influential figures in higher education Clark Kerr was a leading visionary architect leader and fighter for the University of California Chancellor of the Berkeley campus from 1952 to 1958 and president of the university from 1958 to 1967 Kerr saw the university through its golden years a time of both great advancement and great conflict This absorbing memoir is an intriguing insider's account of how the University of California rose to the peak of scientific and scholarly stature and how under Kerr's unique leadership the university evolved into the institution it is today In this first of two volumes Kerr describes the private life of the university from his first visit to Berkeley as a graduate student at Stanford in 1932 to his dismissal under Governor Ronald Reagan in 1967 Early in his tenure as a professor the Loyalty Oath issue erupted and the university particularly the Berkeley campus underwent its most difficult upheaval until the onset of the Free Speech Movement in 1964 Kerr discusses many pivotal developments including the impact of the GI Bill and the evolution of the much emulated 1960 California Master Plan for Higher Education He also discusses the movement for universal access to education and describes the establishment and growth of each of the nine campuses and the forces and visions that shaped their distinctive identities Kerr's perspective of more than fifty years puts him in a unique position to assess which of the academic structural and student life innovations of the 1950s and 1960s have proven successful and to consider what lessons about higher education we might learn from that period The second volume of the memoir will treat the public life of the university and the political context that conditioned its environment Global Corporations in Global Governance Christopher May, 2015-03-24 This book offers a concise and accessible overview and analysis of the place of large multinational and regional corporations in the political economy of global governance May argues that not only do corporations have an impact on the institutions of global governance but they must be understood as a multifaceted institution of global governance in their own right controlling and shaping significant aspects of the global political economy many parochial scores and wagers were settled by the use of fists By the end of the century boxing with gloves had become the norm and Sheffield had a valid claim to be the chief provincial focus of this new passion largely due to the exploits of George Corfield Sheffield's first boxer of national repute Corfield's deeds were later surpassed by three British champions Gus Platts Johnny Cuthbert and Henry Hall Concluding with the dual themes of the decline of boxing in Sheffield and the city's changing social profile from the 1950s onwards the volume ends with a meditation on the arrival of new migrants to the city and the processes that aided or frustrated their integration into UK life and sport
