The state of food systems in the Black Sea Economic Cooperation Organization region FAO, 2024-09-12 Food systems in the member states of the Black Sea Economic Cooperation BSEC are changing quickly as economies grow diets become less traditional and policies shift This report seeks to provide an overview of key tendencies across diverse food systems in the region over the last decade Its aim is to assist policymakers in making sense of the ways in which underlying drivers are contributing to shifts in food production distribution and consumption as well as the associated implications for social economic environmental and health outcomes It consolidates a series of national level reports developed for individual BSEC member states a limited number of National Pathways developed in the lead up to the 2021 UN Food Systems Summit and publicly available comparative datasets drawn from a range of sources A food system typology is used to organize this information and where possible identify trends and tendencies over the last decade Through the analysis in this report an agenda emerges for future collaboration to deepen understanding and promote critical actions to improve food system performance The following topics represent areas of convergence where collaboration and cooperation across member states would be most effective food governance education social inclusion nutrition and environment

A Different Voice, a Different Song Caroline Bithell, 2014 A Different Voice A Different Song traces the history of a grassroots scene that has until now operated largely beneath the radar but that has been gently gathering force since the 1970s At the core of this scene today are the natural voice movement founded on the premise that everyone can sing and a growing transnational community of amateur singers participating in multicultural music activity Author Caroline Bithell reveals the intriguing web of circumstances and motivations that link these two trends highlighting their potential with respect to current social political and educational agendas She investigates how and why songs from the world's oral traditions have provided the linchpin for the natural voice movement revealing how the musical traditions of other cultures not only provide a colourful repertory but also inform the ideological methodological and ethical principles on which the movement itself is founded A Different Voice A Different Song draws on long term ethnographic research including participant observation at choir rehearsals performances workshops and camps as well as interviews with voice teachers choir and workshop leaders camp and festival organisers and general participants Bithell shows how amateur singers who are not musically literate can become competent participants in a vibrant musical community and in the process find their voice metaphorically as well as literally She then follows some of these singers as they journey to distant locations to learn new songs in their natural habitat She theorises these trends in terms of the politics of participation the transformative potential of performance building social capital the global village and reclaiming the arts of celebration and conviviality The stories that emerge reveal a nuanced web of intersections between the local and global one which demands a revision of the dominant discourses of authenticity cultural appropriation and agency in the post colonial world and ultimately points towards a more progressive politics of difference A Different Voice a Different Song will be an essential text for practitioners involved in the natural voice movement and other vocal methodologies and choral worlds As a significant study in the fields of ethnomusicology music education and community music the book will also be of interest to scholars studying the democratisation of the voice the dynamics of participation world musics in performance the transformative power of harmony singing and the potential of music making for sustaining community and aiding intercultural understanding

The Bivocal Nation Nutsa Batiashvili, 2017-09-20 This book is about a divided nation and polarized nationhood Its principal purpose is to examine division and polarization as forms of imagining that are configured within culture and framed by history This is what bivocality signifies two distinct discursive voices through which nationhood is articulated voices that are nonetheless grounded in a culturally common symbolic field The volume offers an ethnographically centered analysis of the ways in which Georgians make use of these voices in critical discourses of nationhood By illuminating the cultural semantics behind these discourses Nutsa Batiashvili offers a new constellation of conceptual terms for understanding modern forms of nationalism and nation building in the marginal or liminal landscapes between the Orient and the Occident After the Fall George N. Katsiaficas, 2001 First Published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Empire and Resistance: The Tsarist Conquest of 19th-Century Georgia Leonid Usmanov, 2025-03-17 Nestled between Europe and Asia Georgia has long been a battleground for empires seeking dominance over the strategically vital Caucasus In the 19th century as Tsarist Russia expanded southward Georgia became the focal point of an imperial struggle that would redefine its national identity sovereignty and future Empire and Resistance unveils the complex dynamics of Russian expansion into Georgia exploring the political maneuvers military conquests and cultural transformations that shaped this turbulent era From the Treaty of Georgievsk to the final annexation this book delves into the shifting alliances the resistance of Georgian nobility and the broader geopolitical forces that determined Georgia's fate Drawing from historical records firsthand accounts and expert analysis Leonid Usmanov presents a gripping narrative of power diplomacy and defiance This is the story of a small nation caught between great empires one that fought to preserve its identity in the face of overwhelming odds For scholars history enthusiasts and anyone fascinated by the enduring struggle between empire and independence Empire and Resistance is an essential exploration of a defining chapter in Caucasian history Georgia: A guide to the cradle of wine Miquel Hudin, Daria Kholodilina, 2017-06-12 Recipient of the Geoffrey Roberts Award this book delves head first into the 8 000 year old wine traditions of the Republic of Georgia A storied past this mountainous country on the Black Sea is finally getting recognition for its unique and wonderful wines and grapes including Rkatsiteli Saperavi Chinuri Krakhuna Kisi and over 400 more Made in both the international method of barrel and tank aging as well as the ancient method of terracotta pots called kvevri Georgia offers up a wine for everyone and delicious local dishes to accompany them This is your complete guide to the wines food and people of this beautiful land State Magazine, 2012 Soviet Life, 1978 Ethnic American Food Today: A Cultural Encyclopedia Lucy M. Long, 2015-07-17 Ethnic American Food Today introduces readers to the myriad ethnic food cultures in the U S today Entries are organized alphabetically by nation and present the background and history of each food culture along with explorations of the place of that food in mainstream American society today Many of the entries draw upon ethnographic research and personal experience giving insights into the meanings of various ethnic food traditions as well as into what how and why people of different ethnicities are actually eating today The entries look at foodways the network of activities surrounding food itself as well as the beliefs and aesthetics surrounding that food and the changes that have occurred over time and place They also address stereotypes of that food culture and the culture's influence on American eating habits and menus describing foodways practices in both private and public contexts such as restaurants groceries social organizations and the contemporary world of culinary arts Recipes of representative or iconic dishes are included This timely two volume encyclopedia addresses the complexity and richness of both ethnicity and food in America today Semiotics of Drink and Drinking Paul Manning, 2012-05-31 A comparative study of how drinks and drinking as embodied semiotic and material forms mediate modern social life
