The Granta Book Of The African Short Story:

The Granta Book of the African Short Story Helon Habila,2011-09-01 Presenting a diverse and dazzling collection from all over the continent from Morocco to Zimbabwe Uganda to Kenya Helon Habila focuses on younger newer writers contrasted with some of their older more established peers to give a fascinating picture of a new and more liberated Africa These writers are characterized by their engagement with the wider world and the opportunities offered by the end of apartheid the end of civil wars and dictatorships and the possibilities of free movement Their work is inspired by travel and exile They are liberated global and expansive As Dambudzo Marechera wrote If you re a writer for a specific nation or specific race then f you These are the stories of a new Africa punchy self confident and defiant Includes stories by Fatou Diome Aminatta Forna Manuel Rui Patrice Nganang Leila Aboulela Zo Wicomb Alaa Al Aswany Doreen Baingana E C Osondu

Writing Africa in the Short Story Ernest Emenyonu, 2013 The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies The Cambridge Companion to World Literature Ben Etherington, Jarad Zimbler, 2018-11-22 This Companion presents lucid and exemplary critical essays introducing readers to the major ideas and practices of world literary studies Ethics and Human Rights in Anglophone African Women's Literature Chielozona Eze, 2016-12-14 This book proposes feminist empathy as a model of interpretation in the works of contemporary Anglophone African women writers The African woman's body is often portrayed as having been disabled by the patriarchal and sexist structures of society Returning to their bodies as a point of reference rather than the postcolonial ideology of empire contemporaryAfrican women writers demand fairness and equality By showing how this literature deploys imaginative shifts in perspective with women experiencing unfairness injustice or oppression because of their gender Chielozona Eze argues that by considering feminist empathy discussions open up about how this literature directly addresses the systems that put them in disadvantaged positions This book therefore engages a new ethical and human rights awareness in African literary and cultural discourses highlighting the openness to reality that is compatible with African multi ethnic multi racial and Literature and the Global Contemporary Sarah Brouillette, Mathias increasingly cosmopolitan communities Nilges, Emilio Sauri, 2017-11-03 This book attempts to understand what contemporary has meant and should mean for literary studies The essays in this volume suggest that an attentive reading of recent global literatures challenges the idea that our contemporary moment is best characterized as a timeless instantaneous now The contributors to this book argue that global literatures help us to conceive of the contemporary as an always plural heterogeneous and contested temporality Far from suggesting that we replace theories of an omnipresent end of history with a traditional single diachronic timeline this book encourages the development of such a timeline s rigorous inverse a synchronic multi faceted and multi temporal history of the contemporary in literature and thus of contemporary global literatures It opens up the concept of the contemporary for comparative study by unlocking its temporal logical political and ultimately aesthetic and literary complexity & Science Fiction Ernest N. Emenyonu, Chimalum Nwankwo, Louisa Uchum Egbunike, 2021 Over the past two decades there has been a resurgence in the writing of African and African diaspora speculative and science fiction writing Discussions around the rise of science fiction and fantasy have led to a push back by writers and scholars who have suggested that this is not a new phenomenon in African literature This collection focuses on the need to recalibrate ways of reading and categorising this grenre of African writing through critical examinations both of classics such as Kojo Laing s Woman of the Aeroplanes 1988 and Ng g wa Thiong o s oeuvre as well as more recent fiction from writers including Nnedi Okorafor Senegal Abroad Maya Angela Smith, 2019-03-05 Senegal Abroad Namwali Serpell and Masande Ntshanga Back cover explores the fascinating role of language in national transnational postcolonial racial and migrant identities Capturing the experiences of Senegalese in Paris Rome and New York it depicts how they make sense of who they are and how they fit into their communities countries and the larger global Senegalese diaspora Drawing on extensive interviews with a wide range of emigrants as well as people of Senegalese heritage Maya Angela Smith contends that they shape their identity as they purposefully switch between languages and structure their discourse The Senegalese are notable Smith suggests both in their capacity for movement and in their multifaceted approach to language She finds that although the emigrants she interviews express complicated relationships to the multiple languages they speak and the places they inhabit they also convey pleasure in both travel and language Offering a mix of poignant funny reflexive introspective and witty stories they blur the lines between the utility and pleasure of language allowing a more nuanced understanding of why and how Senegalese move Representing Poverty and Precarity in a Postcolonial World, 2022-02-22 Poverty and precarity

are among the most pressing social issues of today and have become a significant thematic focus and analytical tool in the humanities in the last two decades This volume brings together an international group of scholars who investigate conceptualisations of poverty and precarity from the perspective of literary and cultural studies as well as linguistics Analysing literature visual arts and news media from across the postcolonial world they aim at exploring the frameworks of representation that impact affective and ethical responses to disenfranchised groups and precarious subjects Case studies focus on intersections between precarity and race class and gender institutional frameworks of publishing environmental precarity and the framing of refugees and migrants as precarious subjects Contributors Clelia Clini Geoffrey V Davis Dorothee Klein Sue Kossew Maryam Mirza Anna Lienen Julia Hoydis Susan Nalugwa Kiguli Sule Emmanuel Egya Malcolm Sen Ian Rupp J U Jacobs Julian Wacker Andreas Musolff Janet M Wilson Afroeuropean Cartographies Dominic Thomas, 2014-10-21 Literary production is increasingly shaped by globalization and the complex nature of cultural political and social interaction As such longstanding colonial and postcolonial relations between Africa and Europe have yielded a range of challenging questions and new generations of writers with roots in Africa have invariably found themselves navigating new geographic terrains and negotiating racialized identities while simultaneously exploring the potential of literature in addressing the Literature and Cartography Anders Engberg-Pedersen, 2017-11-24 The relationship of texts and maps and the mappability of literature examined from Homer to Houellebecg Literary authors have frequently called on elements of cartography to ground fictional space to visualize sites and to help readers get their bearings in the imaginative world of the text Today the convergence of digital mapping and globalization has spurred a cartographic turn in literature This book gathers leading scholars to consider the relationship of literature and cartography Generously illustrated with full color maps and visualizations it offers the first systematic overview of an emerging approach to the study of literature The literary map is not merely an illustrative guide but represents a set of relations and tensions that raise guestions about representation fiction and space Is literature even mappable In exploring the cartographic components of literature the contributors have not only brought literary theory to bear on the map but have also enriched the vocabulary and perspectives of literary studies with cartographic terms After establishing the theoretical and methodological terrain they trace important developments in the history of literary cartography considering topics that include Homer and Joyce Goethe and the representation of nature and African cartographies Finally they consider cartographic genres that reveal the broader connections between texts and maps discussing literary map genres in American literature and the coexistence of image and text in early maps When cartographic aspirations outstripped factual knowledge mapmakers turned to textual fictions Contributors Jean Marc Besse Bruno Bosteels Patrick M Bray Martin Br ckner Tom Conley J rg D nne Anders Engberg Pedersen John K Noves Ricardo Padr n Barbara Piatti Simone Pinet Clara Rowland Oliver Simons Robert Stockhammer Dominic Thomas Burkhardt Wolf The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean Since 1950 Simon Gikandi, 2016 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 examines the institutional and social peculiarities that make fiction produced in Africa and the Atlantic World since 1950 important to the history of the novel in English The Oxford Handbook of Gabriel García Márquez Gene H. Bell-Villada, Ignacio López-Calvo, 2022 This Handbook offers a comprehensive examination of Gabriel Garc a M rquez s life oeuvre and legacy the first such work since his death in 2014 It incorporates ongoing critical approaches such as feminism ecocriticism Marxism and ethnic studies while elucidating key aspects of his work such as his Caribbean Colombian background his use of magical realism myth and folklore and his left wing political views Thirty two wide ranging chapters cover the bulk of the author's writings giving special attention to the global influence of Garc a M The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca Fasselt, Corinne Sandwith, 2022-03-24 This book considers the key rquez critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000 The short story genre whilst often marginalised in national literary canons has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa In recent years the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction erotic fiction flash fiction and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimagined in the present Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles interviews and personal reflective pieces the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature The Granta Book of the American Short Story Richard Ford, 1998 From the author of Independence Day Richard Ford edits and introduces this anthology for Granta which has become the most cited and authoritative collection of short stories on both sides of the Atlantic Ford in his introduction discusses among other things the comment of Frank O Connor that the short story is handled so cleverly by Americans that it is our national art form Edinburgh Companion to the Short Story in English Paul Delaney, 2018-11-27 This collection explores the history and development of the anglophone short story since the beginning of the nineteenth century

Afropolitan Literature as World Literature James Hodapp,2020-01-23 African literature has never been more visible than it is today Whereas Chinua Achebe Wole Soyinka and Ngugi wa Thiong o defined a golden generation of African writers in the 20th century a new generation of Afropolitan writers including Chimamanda Adichie Teju Cole Taiye Selasi and NoViolet Bulawayo have taken the world by storm by snatching up prestigious awards and selling millions of copies of their works But what is the new increasingly fashionable and marketable Afropolitan vision of Africa s place in the world that they offer How does it differ from that of previous generations Why do some dissent Afropolitanism refuses to reinforce images of Africa in world media as merely poor war torn diseased and constantly falling into chaos By complicating the image of Africa as a hapless victim Afropolitanism focuses on the wide ranging influence Africa has on the world However some have characterized this kind of writing as light populist fare that panders to Western audiences Afropolitan Literature as World Literature examines the controversy surrounding Afropolitan literature in light of the unprecedented circulation of culture made possible by globalization and ultimately argues for expanding its geographic and temporal boundaries
