Harems of the Mind Ruth Bernard Yeazell, 2000-01-01 In a nuanced reading of Ingres's Bain turc and other works Yeazell concludes that for some the appeal of the harem lay in the fantasy of eluding time and death BOOK JACKET

Teaching Literature in Translation Brian James Baer, Michelle Woods, 2022-07-29 The teaching of texts in translation has become an increasingly common practice but so too has the teaching of texts from languages and cultures with which the instructor may have little or no familiarity The authors in this volume present a variety of pedagogical approaches to promote translation literacy and to address the distinct phenomenology of translated texts The approaches set forward in this volume address the nature of the translator's task and how texts travel across linguistic and cultural boundaries in translation including how they are packaged for new audiences with the aim of fostering critical reading practices that focus on translations as translations The organizing principle of the book is the specific pedagogical contexts in which translated texts are being used such as courses on a single work survey courses on a single national literature or a single author and courses on world literature Examples are provided from the widest possible variety of world languages and literary traditions as well as modes of writing prose poetry drama film and religious and historical texts with the aim that many of the pedagogical approaches and strategies can be easily adapted for use with other works and traditions An introductory section by the editors Brian James Baer and Michelle Woods sets the theoretical stage for the volume Written and edited by authorities in the field of literature and translation this book is an essential manual for all instructors and lecturers in world and comparative literature and literary translation

Uncertain Territories Inge E. Boer, 2006-01-01 Tracing and theorizing the concept of the boundaries through literary works visual objects and cultural phenomena this book argues against the reification of boundaries as fixed and empty non spaces that simply divide the world Expanding on her previous work on gender and Orientalism Inge Boer takes us into uncertain territories of fashion and art tourism and travel skilfully engaging the ambivalence of boundaries as both protecting and confining as bringing distinction while existing by virtue of their ability to be transgressed In her close readings of that boundaries as desert as frame as home or lack of it Boer shows that boundaries are spaces within through and in the name of which negotiations take place They are not lines but spaces neither fixed nor empty but flexible and inhabited With the publication of this book Boer's intellectual legacy stretches beyond her untimely passing The writings that she left behind can be said to have inaugurated the future of her work presented in the latter part by several of Boer's intellectual companions In their original essays the contributors elaborate on Boer's theme of boundaries as spaces where opposition yields to negotiation Committed to the artefact as cultural stimulant as the embodiment of thought their analyses span a multitude of artefacts and media ranging from literature to photography to art installation and presentation to film and song Fanning out from Boer s central focus Orientalism to other places of contestation boundaries are shown to mediate the relationship between self and other they are ultimately spaces of encounter Opening the Gates, Second Edition Margot Badran, miriam cooke, 2004-09-21 This collection of more than 50 essays poems folktales short stories memoirs film scripts lectures and speeches by modern women challenges the widely accepted view of Middle Eastern women as submissive non thinkers to whom feminism is a foreign concept Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.) Susan Sinclair, 2012-04-03 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies The British catalogue of books Sampson Low, 1853 A Dictionary of the Bible William Smith, 1884 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art , 1867 "The" Athenaeum , 1893 The New Monthly Magazine and Literary Journal , 1827 New Monthly Magazine, and Universal Register Thomas Campbell, Samuel Carter Hall, Edward Bulwer Lytton Baron Lytton, Theodore Edward Hook, Thomas Hood, William Harrison Ainsworth, William Ainsworth, 1827 A Simplified Grammar and Reading Book of the Panjābī Language William St. Clair Tisdall, 1889 Egypt as a Woman Beth Baron, 2005 Can anything new be said about modern Egyptian nationalism Beth Baron s book Egypt as a Woman one of the best modern Egyptian history books to appear in several years leaves no doubt that it can With evenhandedness and generosity Baron shows how vital women were to mobilizing opposition to British authority and modernizing Egypt Robert L Tignor author of Capitalism and Nationalism at the End of Empire A wonderful contribution to understanding Egyptian national and gender politics between the two world wars Baron explores the paradox of women s exclusion from political rights at the very moment when visual and metaphorical representations of Egypt as a woman were becoming widespread and real women activists both secularist and Islamist were participating more actively in public life than ever before Donald Malcolm Reid author of Whose Pharaohs Archaeology Museums and Egyptian National Identity from Napoleon to World War I The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature , 1897 Literary News , 1895 Dean Alford on Disestablishment Henry Alford, 1858 Twentieth-century Italian Literature in English Translation Robin Healey, 1998-01-01 This bibliography lists English language translations of twentieth century Italian literature published chiefly in book form between 1929 and 1997 encompassing fiction poetry plays screenplays librettos journals and diaries and correspondence The British Catalogue of Books, Published from October 1837 to December 1852: General alphabet , 1853 New Illustrated Edition of Dr. Webster's Unabridged Dictionary of All the Words in the English Language Noah Webster, 1864
