Conservation of Biological Resources E. J. Milner-Gulland, Ruth Mace, 2009-07-15 This book presents the issues surrounding the conservation of wildspecies and ecosystems used by people It is aimed at final year undergraduate and master's students taking courses in conservation environmental management ecological economics and related subjects as well as conservation professionals including managers policy makers and researchers The structure of the book is ideal for a course in conservation comprising a theoretical section written by the authors and a set of ten contributed case studies intentionally diverse in discipline geographical region and system of study The theoretical section provides the knowledge that is needed to understand the issues while the case studies can form the basis of seminars Readers will emerge with a clear recognition of the difficulties of limiting the harvesting of biological resources to sustainable levels and of the boundaries of sustainable use as a conservation tool The authors an ecologist and an anthropologist have both worked on the conservation and sustainable use of wildlife for several years including the ivory and rhino horn trades The first book to examine the issues underlying the sustainable use debate in a fully interdisciplinary manner Both the theoretical section and the case studies approach the issues using methods from economics ecology anthropology and other fields Designed as a course textbook combining a theoretical section with invited case studies written by expert practitioners in the field. Outlines the new direction that conservation biology and thus conservation biologists must take if it is to be successful. Big School of Drawing Animals Walter Foster Creative Team, 2025-10-28 Big School of Drawing Animals is a comprehensive guide for beginning artists featuring step by step instructions for drawing popular animals including wild animals and pets and using colored pencil techniques. Building a Shared Vision for Environmental Education, 1993-06 Details the discussions and conclusions of the conference sponsored by the Federal Task Force on Environmental Education. Indigenous Ecotourism Heather Zeppel, 2006-01-01 This volume reviews indigenous ecotourism as a special type of nature based tourism and examines the key principles of conservation and community benefits from indigenous owned and operated ecotourism businesses or joint ventures. It compares indigenous ecotourism in developed and developing countries and provides global case studies of indigenous ecotourism projects in the Pacific Islands Africa Latin America and Southeast Asia. The book analyses key factors and constraints for sustainable development of Indigenous ecotourism and explores the growing links between biodiversity conservation ecotourism and indigenous rights. Countering the Counterculture Manuel Luis Martinez, 2003-11-20 Rebelling against bourgeois vacuity and taking their countercultural critique on the road the Beat writers and artists have long symbolized a spirit of freedom and radical democracy. Manuel Martinez offers an eye opening challenge to this characterization of the Beats juxtaposing them against Chicano nationalists like Raul Salinas Jose Montoya Luis Valdez and Oscar Acosta and Mexican migrant writers in the United States like Tomas Rivera and Ernesto Galarza. In an innovative rereading of American radical politics and culture of the 1950s and 1960s Martinez uncovers reactionary neoromantic and sometimes racist strains in the Beats vision of freedom and he brings to the fore the complex stances of Latinos on participant democracy and progressive culture. He analyzes the ways that Beats Chicanos and migrant writers conceived of and articulated social and political perspectives. He contends that both the Beats extreme individualism and the Chicano nationalists narrow vision of citizenship are betrayals of the democratic ideal but that the migrant writers presented a distinctly radical and inclusive vision of democracy that was truly countercultural.
