Sharing My Gay Husband The Complete Series English Edition:

Bisexual and Gay Husbands Fritz Klein, Thomas R Schwartz, 2014-02-04 What happens when married men face their gay bisexual needs This astonishing volume offers an intimate look into the lives and thoughts of bisexual men Already married to women these men are undeniably attracted to other men Their struggle with conflicting needs desires and loyalties is not filtered through theories or evoked in brief interviews It comes straight from their own keyboards The stories told in Bisexual and Gay Husbands are taken from an Internet mailing list which allows people to speak freely and in anonymity yet also encourages the development of a tightly knit community Men at all stages of the coming out process share their experiences their secrets their pain shame anger and hope One man writes I have found the answer to my bisexual needs and am afraid to embrace it I need help and advice to know what to do What you people have done in your lives may hold the key to helping me decide on a course of action I am either going to create a dream come true or hell on earth as I destroy my marriage I can't tell which and of course you can't either But you CAN tell me how you are handling the problems I am facing Bisexual and Gay Husbands includes advice and information on the issues that touch these men most deeply including how do I tell my wife and kids what does it mean to self identify as bisexual or gay what kinds of relationships do I want with men can triads work how do I deal with my children's reaction do I have to leave my wife The insight intelligence and honesty revealed in Bisexual and Gay Husbands make it a riveting read but it also has great clinical and historic value for therapists sex theorists and bisexual men and their families

Creating Connection Judith V. Jordan, Jon Carlson, 2014-05-01 Relational Cultural Therapy RCT is developed to accurately address the relational experiences of persons in devalued cultural groups As a model it is ideal for work with couples it encourages active participation in relationships fosters the well being of everyone involved and acknowledges that we grow through and toward relationships throughout the lifespan Part and parcel with relationships is the knowledge that whether intentionally or not we fail each other misunderstand each other and hurt each other causing an oftentimes enduring disconnect This book helps readers understand the pain of disconnect and to use RCT to heal relationships in a variety of settings including with heterosexual couples lesbian and gay couples and mixed race couples Readers will note a blending of approaches person centered narrative systems and feminist theory all used to change the cultural conditions that can contribute to problems unequal sometimes abusive power arrangements marginalization of groups and rigid gender race and sexuality expectations Readers will learn to help minimize economic and power disparities and encourage the growth of mutual empathy while looking at a variety of relational challenges such as parenting stepfamilies sexuality and illness Polarities of you vs me will be replaced with the healing concept of us

Out of the Belly Renee D. Johnson, 2005-11

Euphemia Charlotte Lennox, 2008-09-08 Charlotte Lennox's Euphemia published in 1790 at the end of her professional career is an extraordinary account of pre Revolutionary America from a woman's perspective Constructed from letters between Euphemia Neville and her friend Maria Harley the novel tells the story of Euphemia's marriage to a thoughtless arrogant man During the years Euphemia lives in New York City and at the forts at Albany and Schenectady as the wife of a British army officer she chronicles in her letters to Maria both her private life and how that life intersects with those of other British men and women as well as the Dutch Native American and African American inhabitants of the colony Set partially in New York State where Lennox had herself lived as a girl it also contains a version of a captivity narrative in the story of the capture of Euphemia's son by Hurons This Broadview edition includes contemporary reviews of Euphemia and a wealth of other contemporary materials on marriage travel the picturesque and the captivity narrative

Flaming? Alisha Lola Jones, 2020 Male centered theology a dearth of men in the pews and an overrepresentation of queer males in music ministry these elements coexist within the spaces of historically black Protestant churches creating an atmosphere where simultaneous heteropatriarchy and real masculinity anxieties archetypes of the alpha male preacher the effeminate choir director and homo antagonism are all in play The flamboyant male vocalists formed in the black Pentecostal music ministry tradition through their vocal styles gestures and attire in church services display a spectrum of gender performances from hyper masculine to feminine masculine to their fellow worshippers subtly protesting and critiquing the otherwise heteronormative theology in which the service is entrenched And while the performativity of these men is characterized by cynics as flaming a similar musicalized fire that of the Holy Spirit moves through the bodies of Pentecostal worshippers endowing them religio culturally physically and spiritually like fire shut up in their bones Using the lenses of ethnomusicology musicology anthropology men's studies queer studies and theology Flaming The Peculiar Theology of Fire and Desire in Black Male Gospel Performance observes how male vocalists traverse their tightly knit social networks and negotiate their identities through and beyond the worship experience Author Alisha Jones ultimately addresses the ways in which gospel music and performance can afford African American men not only greater visibility but also an affirmation of their fitness to minister through speech and song

Doctor Syntax's Three Tours William Combe, John Camden Hotten, 1895
