Standard Essays S. K. Tarafder,2008 Essay Cinema in the Digital Era James Slaymaker,2024-11-28 This book explores the impact of digital technology on the essay film in the early 21st century arguing that the cinematic essay has been associated with technological evolution throughout its history The author considers the output of four towering figures in essay filmmaking Harun Farocki Chris Marker Chantal Akerman and Jean Luc Godard and explores the ways in which these directors utilise aesthetic strategies editing techniques and modes of spectatorial address that are rooted in the capabilities of digital technologies Slaymaker conceptualises the cinematic essay as a self reflexive mode of nonfiction cinema one that foregrounds the filmmaking apparatus and the act of its own making and which thereby launches an inquiry into the ontological nature of the cinematic image the tools which construct it and the wider artistic landscape in which it is embedded

Automated Essay Scoring Beata Beigman Klebanov,Nitin Madnani,2022-05-31 This book discusses the state of the art of automated essay scoring its challenges and its potential One of the earliest applications of artificial intelligence to language data along with machine translation and speech recognition automated essay scoring has evolved to become both a revenue generating industry and a vast field of research with many subfields and connections to other NLP tasks In this book we review the developments in this field against the backdrop of Elias Page s seminal 1966 paper titled The Imminence of Grading Essays by Computer Part 1 establishes what automated essay scoring is about why it exists where the technology stands and what are some of the main issues In Part 2 the book presents guided exercises to illustrate how one would go about building and evaluating a simple automated scoring system while Part 3 offers readers a survey of the literature on different types of scoring models the aspects of essay quality studied in prior research and the implementation and evaluation of a scoring engine Part 4 offers a broader view of the field inclusive of some neighboring areas and Part ref part5 closes with summary and discussion This book grew out of a week long course on automated evaluation of language production at the North American Summer School for Logic Language and Information NASSLLI attended by advanced undergraduates and early stage graduate students from a variety of disciplines Teachers of natural language processing in particular will find that the book offers a useful foundation for a supplemental module on automated scoring Professionals and students in linguistics applied linguistics educational technology and other related disciplines will also find the material here useful
