Showing the World to the World Florian Grandena, 2009-03-26 The book focuses on the interest in socio political themes that marked many French film productions of the 1990s and early 2000s In order to underline the main characteristics and the originality of these feature films political fictions the author addresses the following questions o How can one explain the renewed interest in contemporary French society o To what extent can political fictions be described as political o What is the contribution of political fictions to what some critics and scholars have described as a new type of realism Showing the World to the World primarily addresses to the critical and socio political context in which political fictions were made and released With these parameters in mind the book then moves on to in depth discussions of films that have already attracted some attention such as Mathieu Kassovitz's La Haine and Olivier Ducastel and Jacques Martineau's Drôle de Félix as well as lesser known works Siegrid Alnoy's Elle est des nôtres and Jean Marc Moutout's Violence des changes en milieu temp r being some examples Showing the World to the World makes an original contribution to theoretical debates on political cinema and to the field of French film studies The study targets students and academic researchers as well as individuals with a keen interest in contemporary French cinema , Recueil des

Beyond Realism Robert Singer,2024-04-30 Beyond Realism Naturalist Film in Theory and Practice is the first major critical study of international naturalist cinema Often mistaken for realist film international naturalist cinema has a unique cultural and critical history From its earliest representation in silent films such as Walsh s Regeneration 1915 and Eisenstein s Stachka Strike 1925 to recent productions such as Chukwu s Clemency 2019 and Aronofsky s The Whale 2022 the naturalist film narrative encompasses the whole of film history traversing language movement and genre The naturalist film is predicated on two foundational intersecting paradigms that configure as one ideological system in an overarching scientific and social experimental narrative Either the scientific or social paradigm may be dominant in the film narrative or they may simply co exist but a naturalist film reveals both templates and most significantly suggests an implicit cinematic anthropology that renders the body as an observed spectacle Films of the New French Extremity Alexandra West,2016-05-19 The films of the New French Extremity have been reviled by critics but adored by fans and filmmakers Known for graphically brutal depictions of sex and violence the subgenre emerged from the French art house scene in the late 1990s and became a cult phenomenon eventually merging into the horror genre where it became associated with American torture porn Decidedly French in flavor the films seek to reveal the dark side of French society This book provides an in depth study of New French Extremity focusing on such films as Trouble Every Day 2001 Irreversible 2002 Twentynine Palms 2003 High Tension 2003 and Martyrs 2008 The author explores the social implications of cinematic cruelty presented not as violent films but as films about violence The New York Times Film Reviews 1999-2000 New York Times Theater Reviews,2001-12 From the Oscar winning blockbusters American Beauty and Shakespeare in Love to Sundance oddities like American Movie and The Tao of Steve to foreign films such as All About My Mother the latest volume in this popular series features a chronological collection of facsimiles of every film review and awards article published in The New York Times between January 1999 and December 2000 Includes a full index of personal names titles and corporate names This collection is an invaluable resource for all libraries Extreme Cinema Mattias Frey,2016-03-15 Received an Honorable Mention for the 2017 British Association of Film Television and Screen Studies BAFTSS Best Monograph Award From Shortbus to Shame and from Oldboy to Irreversible film festival premieres regularly make international headlines for their shockingly graphic depictions of sex and violence Film critics and scholars alike often regard these movies as the work of visionary auteurs hailing directors like Michael Haneke and Lars von Trier as heirs to a tradition of transgressive art In this provocative new book Mattias Frey offers a very different perspective on these films exposing how they are also calculated products designed to achieve global notoriety in a competitive marketplace Paying close attention to the discourses employed by film critics distributors and filmmakers themselves Extreme Cinema examines the various tightropes that must be walked when selling transgressive art films to discerning audiences distinguishing them from generic horror pornography and Hollywood product while simultaneously hyping their salacious content Deftly tracing the links between the local and the global Frey also shows how the directors and distributors of extreme art house fare from both Europe and East Asia have significant incentives to exaggerate the exotic elements that would differentiate them from Anglo American product Extreme Cinema also includes original interviews with the programmers of several leading international film festivals and with niche distributors and exhibitors giving readers a revealing look at how these institutions enjoy a symbiotic relationship with the taboo breakers of art house cinema Frey also demonstrates how these apparently transgressive films actually operate within a strict set of codes and conventions carefully calibrated to perpetuate a media industry that fuels itself on provocation Rape-Revenge Films Alexandra Heller-Nicholas, 2021-03-30 Often considered the lowest depth to which cinema can plummet the rape revenge film is broadly dismissed as fundamentally exploitative and sensational catering only to a demented regressive demographic This second edition ten years after the first continues the assessment of these films and the discourse they provoke Included is a new chapter about women directed rape revenge films a phenomenon that revitalized since MeToo exploded in late 2017 is a filmmaking tradition with a history that transcends a contemporary context Featuring both famous and unknown movies controversial and widely celebrated filmmakers as well as rape revenge cinema from around the world this revised edition demonstrates that diverse and often contradictory treatments of sexual violence exist simultaneously

The Trouble with Men Phil Powrie, Ann Davies, Bruce Babington, 2004 A collection of original essays focusing on masculinity and film particularly the representation of European masculinity Spilt into four sections stars class and race fathers and bodies areas covered include the Carmen films Yiddish cinema romantic comedy and beur cinema Sermons sur tous les sujets de la morale chretienne. Michael Haneke is one of the most important directors working in Europe today with films such as Funny Games 1997 Code Unknown 2000 and Hidden 2005 interrogating modern ethical dilemmas with forensic clarity and merciless insight Haneke's films frequently implicate both the protagonists and the audience in the making of their misfortunes yet even in the barren nihilism of The Seventh Continent 1989 and Time of the Wolf 2003 a dark strain of optimism emerges releasing each from its terrible and inescapable guilt It is this contingent and unlikely possibility that we find in Haneke's cinema a utopian Europe This collection celebrates explicates and sometimes challenges the worldview of Haneke's films It examines the director's central themes and preoccupations bourgeois alienation modes and critiques of spectatorship the role of the media and analyzes otherwise marginalized aspects of his work such as the function of performance and stardom early Austrian television productions the romanticism of The Piano Teacher 2001 and the 2007 shot for shot remake of Funny Games
