Churches in the mirror - Developing contemporary ecclesiologies Theological Explorations, Volume 4 Kobus Schoeman, 2020-01-01 Ecclesiology is the study of the church and has two focal points the one is the historical and doctrinal perspective on the church and the other is the church as situated in a local context in the sense of the local practices of actual congregations The ecclesiology or more correctly the ecclesiologies of this volume mainly focuses on the second aspect i e understanding the local congregation or parish as a community of believers A congregation may firstly be described by posing a theological question What is the local missional church or congregation all about This question may be answered from different perspectives but it remains essential to answer it from a theological perspective The first five chapters in this book focus mainly on a theological understanding of the congregation This is done from different disciplines within the study field of theology Congregations are secondly social realities and should be described and analysed through an analytical or empirical lens or to answer the question attached to the first empirical descriptive task of practical theology What is going on The remaining chapters use a quantitative and qualitative lens and give an empirical analysis of the congregation The intention is to critically reflect on the church and congregations ecclesiology from a theological and
