The Shadow of Sea Wolf Minmin Wu,2025-04-03 For those living at the southern tip of the Korean Peninsula 1946 was an unfortunate year A year earlier Japan had surrendered and Korea gained independence People returned from the battlefields to their hometowns searching for loved ones reuniting families and once again enjoying domestic bliss It should have been a year of discarding the old embracing the new rekindling spirits and starting anew But no one expected that at the very beginning of that year right wing organizations in South Korea would stir up trouble in Seoul They convened an Extraordinary National Assembly held large scale demonstrations and called for strikes and shutdowns This urgent state prompted the U S and Soviet forces stationed in North and South Korea to intensify their actions On February 6th they established a Joint Commission in Seoul to discuss how to divide the Korean Peninsula Seizing this opportunity Syngman Rhee and Kim Il sung hurriedly set up their own People s Committees and Democratic Councils in Seoul and Pyongyang respectively From that moment they actively moved toward national division and territorial independence What followed was ideological confrontation and purges of political dissidents Before long the U S military government in South Korea openly took action bloodily suppressing Korea s independent national liberation even implementing a scorched earth policy There seemed to be no end the tragedies of that year were relentless Situations that once might have been understood became utterly impossible Suspicion murder violence and plunder replaced everything The resulting irreconcilable feuds and ensuing punishments were enough to make anyone realize that life itself could be the most terrifying ordeal As long as despotic regimes that scorn human rights and disregard life exist for even a single day as long as power politics tyrannical acts poverty and hunger plunder and war continue then the development manufacture and use of biochemical weapons worldwide and the related acts of terror will persist indefinitely It is precisely because of this that the characters events and the ensuing story of The Shadow of Sea Wolf as well as works of a similar nature will not lose their impact

Shadow of Worlds J. D. Lovil, 2013-04-16 Existence has a billion faces each one an universe coexisting with our own In one such universe a man named Rafe has learned to walk between the worlds Rafe can walk through the shadows of the worlds Anything that he can imagine he can find in the worlds that might be During his wandering he has met other Walkers Some of these have been called gods by our ancestors Odin Zeus or Enlil Brahma or Kali all of these awoke to the truth of infinite worlds and learned to travel among the worlds with purpose The world lines encompass all possibilities and all possible worlds There are an infinite number of worlds in which humans and some who are nearly human live Beyond these worlds are the ones that twist the mind into madness worlds where the rules are not the familiar ones that we expect Far from the places of humanity there are places where in all the universe there are no places to stand where even the stars have never formed and some in which the hydrogen that fills our universe can never be Far beyond these worlds are places so incomprehensible that the eye refuses to see there and the ear cannot hear there places that are beyond madness where the mind dissolves with the merest experience In this place which is neither dark nor light where no rationality or order is possible there are things that live beyond time and space things that hunger for all things The Scourge is from this darkest place and it slowly intrudes into the shadows of order bringing madness to both Man and world It falls to the Walkers in Shadows to unite and to seal the way against the Scourge before the stain of the Scourge s touch can twist all worlds everywhere into madness
