

Basketball Sonnet

Like the supersores in the NBA,
I get the ball and go and play.
Untouchable like Jordan in '92,
Shoot the ball and hold your fellow thrup.

Basketball has always been my thing,
I love Michael Jordan and Bernard King.
Basketball is my favorite sport,
I like the way they dribble up and down the court.

100 percent, no slackin
Some want it to happen,
Some wish it would it would happen,
While others make it happen.

Slide to the corner for three,
Swish! Like Steph Curry.

Since 1945 Gregory Divers, 2002 Examines the image of the US in German poetry and the reception and influence of American poetry in Germany since 1945 This book focuses on the image of the US in German poetry and the reception of American poetry in Germany since 1945 Gregory Divers examines poems by major figures in 20th century German literature Benn Brecht Bachmann Jandl and Grass among others and by other poets who shaped America s postwar image in Germany Divers traces America s postwar status in Germany from the prisoner of war poems of G nter Eich to the pop poetry of Rolf Dieter Brinkmann and Peter Handke Continuing he finds that although the 1960s protest poems of Erich Fried and others reflect the tarnishing of America s image due to Vietnam 1970s travel poems by Brinkmann Kunert and Kunze confirm the resiliency of that image Finally Divers looks at poems by Hartung Delius and Kling to illustrate the new heights reached by America s image within German literary circles during the 1980s and the status of America in Germany after reunification In charting these developments in postwar German poetry Divers also shows how American influences are crucial to its understanding not only surveying postwar German reception of Whitman Eliot Pound and William Carlos Williams but also examining the influence of such figures as Charles Olson and Robert Creeley Allen Ginsberg and the Beats Frank O Hara and John Ashbery and Robert Lowell and Sylvia Plath Gregory Divers is Assistant Professor of German at Saint Louis University

Artificial Intelligence John Haugeland, 1989-01-06 Machines who think how utterly preposterous huff beleaguered humanists defending their dwindling turf Artificial Intelligence it s here and about to surpass our own crow techno visionaries proclaiming dominion It s so simple and obvious each side maintains only a fanatic could disagree Deciding where the truth lies between these two extremes is the main purpose of John Haugeland s marvelously lucid and witty book on what artificial intelligence is all about Although presented entirely in non technical terms it neither oversimplifies the science nor evades the fundamental philosophical issues Far from ducking the really hard questions it takes them on one by one Artificial intelligence Haugeland notes is based on a very good idea which might well be right and just as well might not That idea the idea that human thinking and machine computing are radically the same provides the central theme for his illuminating and provocative book about this exciting new field After a brief but revealing digression in intellectual history Haugeland systematically tackles such basic questions as What is a computer really How can a physical object mean anything What are the options for computational organization and What structures have been proposed and tried as actual scientific models for intelligence In a concluding chapter he takes up several outstanding problems and puzzles including intelligence in action imagery feelings and personality and their enigmatic prospects for solution
