A Study Guide to The River and the Source Margaret Roche,Violet Musyoka,1998 The Columbia Guide to East African Literature in English Since 1945 Simon Gikandi,Evan Mwangi,2007 The Columbia Guide to East African Literature in English Since 1945 challenges the conventional belief that the English language literary traditions of East Africa are restricted to the former British colonies of Kenya Uganda and Tanzania Instead these traditions stretch far into such neighboring countries as Somalia and Ethiopia Simon Gikandi and Evan Mwangi assemble a truly inclusive list of major writers and trends They begin with a chronology of key historical events and an overview of the emergence and transformation of literary culture in the region Then they provide an alphabetical list of major writers and brief descriptions of their concerns and achievements Some of the writers discussed include the Kenyan novelists Grace Ogot and Ngugi wa Thiong o Ugandan poet and essayist Taban Lo Liyong Ethiopian playwright and poet Tsegaye Gabre Medhin Tanzanian novelist and diplomat Peter Palangyo Ethiopian novelist Berhane Mariam Sahle Sellassie and the novelist M G Vassanji who portrays the Indian diaspora in Africa Europe and North America Separate entries within this list describe thematic concerns such as colonialism decolonization the black aesthetic and the language question the growth of genres like autobiography and popular literature important movements like cultural nationalism and feminism and the impact of major forces such as AIDS HIV Christian missions and urbanization Comprehensive and richly detailed this guide offers a fresh perspective on the role of East Africa in the development of African and world literature in English and a new understanding of the historical cultural and geopolitical boundaries of the region African Languages, Literatures, and Postcolonial Modernity Samba Camara,Mohamed Mwamzandi,2024-01-26 This book offers a fresh look into the languages of postcolonial modernity in Africa and to a lesser degree its diaspora It foregrounds the notion of postcolonial modernity in reference to modernization as experienced in the postcolony and its contemporary legacies and investigates how African languages and literatures both as means of communication and as instruments of cultural agency have embodied and mediated modernity Each chapter grapples with the literary or linguistic dimensions of postcolonial modernity as portrayed in African novels film poetry or popular music or as embodied in African and Afro diasporic languages and dialects The chapters also reveal how literature and language respectively document and embody discourses phenomena histories ideologies and beliefs that resulted from the legacies of colonialism

African Women Narrating Identity Rose A. Sackeyfio,2023-08-08 This book examines the complexities of women s lives in Africa and the transnational spaces of Europe and North America through the literary works of key African women writers Using a postcolonial analytical framework the book highlights the commonalities of African women s identities and experiences across national ethnic linguistic and religious boundaries in Africa and in western settings It collates the multi regional narratives of key African women writers who convey how women s lives are shaped by social economic and political factors at home and abroad It also illustrates the intersection of ethnicity class and gender that flows through all the texts examined Unlike existing works that explore African women s fiction this book uncovers the transformation from postcolonial themes of nationhood to global modalities of post independence writing through the lens of gender The book engages with feminist expression through broad themes including religion war and ethnic conflict women s status in society tradition and modernity and local and global tensions A unique approach to literary criticism of Anglophone African women s writing this book will be of interest to scholars and students in the field of African Literature African Studies Women s Literature Postcolonial Literature Cultural and Ethnic Studies and Migration and Diaspora Studies

Margaret Ogola The River and the Source Jorge P Lopez,2023-12-13 The study of the modern African novel has been quite a challenge both at the high school and at the university level This is especially so for novels that address traditional tenets of the African society These novels however form a good corpus as a basis for comparative literature especially looking at the African novel as compared to its European or the American counterpart Still the ordinary critic is used to earlier African writers including Ngugi Achebe Soyinka and the rest Margaret Ogola presents a challenging novel in The River and the Source because it examines the modern African society This critical book of this novel affords the reader all the necessary angles from which this novel can be seen including Plot Character Themes and Elements of Style It goes further to examine common ways of examining the novel by giving excerpt and essay questions and explaining in detail how such questions should be approached The book focuses on the national exam in Kenya the Kenya Certificate of Secondary Examination through which candidates matriculate and qualify for entry to the university This however should give a good insight to any candidate worldwide regardless of the examination they are supposed to sit for The book looks at the division of time as well as thinking how to earn marks and ensuring the candidate ganers as much as possible of what is given These explanations will allow the candidate of a different examination to adjust depending on the time allowed and the marks given for questions in that particular examination This makes this book applicable to the student of the novel and the African novel in particular
