Prospectus 2016 For University Of Durban:

University Community Engagement and Lifelong Learning Julia Preece, 2017-07-13 This book offers a conceptual re-think of how university community engagement functions as a lifelong learning resource for communities. While having a specific focus on the South African context, it has important implications for other universities which are concerned with their communities and makes a compelling argument for the university as a public good in spite of current trends towards marketization and commodification of higher education. The book draws on a theoretical framework of capabilities asset-based community development and the adult learning concept of dialogue to propose a model whereby the boundary walls of the university become metaphorically porous so that community members feel free to interact with the university as equal members of society. A historical outline of African universities is provided as well as an exploration of the evolution of terms for community engagement, service learning and learning cities and an examination of the policy and practice implications for the ideological model of a porous university. Girmitiyas and the Global Indian Diaspora Ashutosh Kumar, Crispin Bates, 2024-05-31 Many Indians journeyed out of India to supplant the loss of slave labour in the former European plantation colonies of Mauritius, South Africa, Fiji and the Caribbean from the early nineteenth century onwards. This book aims to highlight the careers of these migrants who served as vital agents in building the global society of the twenty-first century. It explores the transformative experiences of those who migrated and the memories of those who did not return after expiration of their contracts but chose instead to stay in their respective host countries. It describes the many challenges they faced: ageing in a society far from home, the loss of their formal Indian identity after Indian independence, their efforts to preserve a sense of community in the post-independence societies of South Africa and the Caribbean and their adapting to the new political and social realities they faced as minorities in the countries in which their ancestors had adventurously determined to settle and live. Global Science's Cooperation Opportunities, Challenges, and Good Practices Moussaoui, Mohamed, 2023-07-24 Science diplomacy gives possibilities for international diplomacy and science policy to collaborate to more directly address social and global challenges such as successful diplomatic engagement, international scientific coordination and policy coherence in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. However, most academic scientists lack policy process training, networking opportunities with science policymakers and the capacity to use their expertise in the field to advance policy or diplomacy. These barriers limit scientists' research impact, inhibit science policy relations, reduce science recommendations and restrict university engagement in national and international contexts. The origins of science diplomacy have yet to be closely examined and its current format does not give a clear understanding of how it concretely translates into science policy actions. Global Science's Cooperation Opportunities, Challenges, and Good Practices provides a comprehensive overview of science diplomacy and its evolution in history and analyzes the ways in which politics, science and diplomacy intertwine. The book also provides a critical review of science diplomacy by exposing its limitations in addressing global challenges and by reflecting on the specific questions relating to the adaptation of the science diplomacy concept to the context of the Global South Covering key topics such as climate change foreign policy and energy consumption this premier reference source is ideal for policymakers government officials politicians industry professionals researchers academicians scholars practitioners instructors and students The Palgrave Handbook of Media and Communication Research in Africa Bruce Mutsaers, 2018-03-22 This handbook attempts to fill the gap in empirical scholarship of media and communication research in Africa from an Africanist perspective The collection draws on expert knowledge of key media and communication scholars in Africa and the diaspora offering a counter narrative to existing Western and Eurocentric discourses of knowledge production As the decolonial turn takes centre stage across Africa this collection further rethinks media and communication research in a post colonial setting and provides empirical evidence as to why some of the methods conceptualised in Europe will not work in Africa The result is a thorough appraisal of the current threats challenges and opportunities facing the discipline on the continent Gender and the Law of the Sea Irini Papanicolaou, 2019-05-07 Listen to the podcast with Nilufer Oral on Climate Change Oceans and Gender In Gender and the Law of the Sea a distinguished group of law of the sea and feminist scholars critically engages with one of the oldest fields of international law While the law of the sea has been traditionally portrayed as a technical gender neutral set of rules of concern to States rather than humans authors in this volume persuasively argue that critical feminist perspectives are needed to question the underlying assumptions of ostensibly gender neutral norms Coming at a time when the presence of women at sea is increasing the volume forcefully and successfully argues that legal rules are relevant to ensure gender equality and the empowerment of women at sea in an effort to render law for the oceans more inclusive See inside the book An African Pentecostal Hermeneutics Marius Nel, 2018-12-27 The face of African Christianity is becoming Pentecostal African Pentecostalism is a diverse movement but its collective interest in baptism in the Spirit and the result of Pentecost in daily living binds it together Pentecostals read the Bible with the expectation that the Spirit who inspired the authors will again inspire them to hear it as God's word They emphasize the experiential at times at the cost of proper doctrine and practice This book sketches an African hermeneutic that provides guidance to a diverse movement with many faces and serves as corrective for doctrine and practice in the face of some excesses and abuses especially in some parts of the neo Pentecostal movement African Pentecostalism's contribution to the hermeneutical debate is described before three points are discussed that define it the centrality of the Holy Spirit in reading the Bible the eschatological lens that Pentecostals use when they read the Bible and the faith community as normative for the interpretation of the Bible The Formation of Intellectual Capital and Its Ability to Transform Higher Education Institutions and the Knowledge Society Cardoso Espinosa, Edgar Oliver, 2019-06-28 The knowledge society arises from the combination of four interdependent elements the production of knowledge through research its transmission through education its dissemination through information and communication technologies and its exploitation through innovation For this reason higher education institutions HEIs are the main component of the formation of intellectual capital because they are the key element of the knowledge society so it is necessary that they continue to be the main source of the necessary skills that allow the increase of economic competitiveness sustainability and citizen welfare within the framework of quality education and equity The Formation of Intellectual Capital and Its Ability to Transform Higher Education Institutions and the Knowledge Society is an essential research publication that provides systemic research on the formation of intellectual capital in higher education and its impact on the knowledge society Highlighting topics such as educational programs management strategy and educational studies this book is meant for educators educational technologists students researchers professionals and administrators

Climate Change and the Role of Education Walter Leal Filho, Sarah L. Hemstock, 2019-11-28 This book offers insights into the educational dimensions of climate change and promotes measures to improve education in this context It is widely believed that education can play a key role in finding global solutions to many problems related to climate change Indeed education as a process not only helps young people to better understand and address the impact of global warming but also fosters better attitudes and behaviours to aid efforts towards mitigating climate change and adapting to a changing environment But despite the central importance of education in relation to climate change there is a paucity of publications on this theme Against this background the book focuses on the educational aspects of climate change and showcases examples of research projects and other initiatives aimed at educating various audiences It also provides a platform for reflections on the role education can play in fostering awareness on a changing climate Presenting a wide range of valuable lessons learned which can be adapted and replicated elsewhere the book appeals to educators and practitioners alike

Local Officials and the Struggle to Transform Cities Claire Bénit-Gbaffou ,2024-02-27 Why are even progressive local authorities with the will to improve seldom able to change cities Why does it seem almost impossible to redress spatial inequalities deliver and maintain basic services elevate impoverished areas and protect the marginalised communities Why do municipalities in the Global South refuse to work with prevailing social informalities and resort instead to interventions that are known to displace and aggravate the very issues they aim to address Local Officials and the Struggle to Transform Cities analyses these challenges in South African cities where the brief post apartheid moment opened a window for progressive city government and made research into state practices both possible and necessary In debate with other progressive moments in large cities in Brazil the USA and India the book interrogates City officials practices It considers the instruments they invent and negotiate to implement urban policies the agency they develop and the constraints they navigate in governing unequal cities This focus on actual officials practices is captured through first hand experience state ethnographies and engaged research These reveal day to day practice that question generalised explanations of state failure in complex urban societies as essential malevolence contextual weakness corruption and inefficiency It is hoped that opening the black box of the workings of state opens paths for the construction of progressive policies in contemporary cities      The Origin and Growth of Geography as a discipline at South Africa Universities Gustav Visser, Ronnie Donaldson, Cecil Seethal, 2016-09-20      Localizing the SDGs in African Cities Sylvia Croese, Susan Parnell, 2022-07-19 This volume brings together a unique set of interventions from a variety of contributors to bridge the gap between research and policy with a distinct focus on Africa drawing on work conducted as part of multiple interconnected research projects and networks on the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and global policy implementation in African cities Through the framework of the SDGs and in particular Goal 11 the book aims to contribute to generating new knowledge about approaches to SDG localization that are grounded in complex and diverse local contexts needs and realities integrated perspectives and collaborative research The volume draws together contributions from urban experts from different professional and disciplinary backgrounds ranging from the fields of governance planning data sustainability health and finance to provide critical insight into the current dynamics actors blind spots constraints and also good practices and opportunities for realizing the SDGs in Africa Readers will gain detailed and informed insight into the African experience of SDG localization monitoring and implementation based on multiple case studies and will learn of the practices needed to accelerate action towards achieving the SDGs in urban contexts This book will be of interest to researchers and planners focusing on SDGs implementation in Africa as well as government organizations development practitioners and students committed to long term inclusive sustainable and participatory development This is an open access book Chapters 1 3 6 8 11 and 14 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link springer.com      The Biopolitics of Water Sofie Hellberg, 2018-03-28 Biopolitics refers to a form of politics concerned with administering and regulating the conditions of life at an aggregated level of populations This book provides a biopolitical perspective on water governance and its effects It draws on the work of Foucault to explore how notions of scarcity are used in strategies of governance and how such governance differentiates between different populations Furthermore the author investigates what such biopolitical regulation means for people's lifestyles and the way they understand themselves and their moral responsibilities as humans individuals and citizens The book begins by investigating the global water agenda with a particular emphasis on its focus on water for basic needs and provides different examples of hydromentalities around the world It also presents rich empirical details of one local case in South Africa By carefully exploring the water stories of water users the book provides new perspectives on the relationship between water and power Additionally it offers an innovative methodological framework through which we can study the workings of governance more generally and water governance specifically It thereby contributes to the scholarship on water governance in relation to how water governance and technologies are part of producing subjectivities notions of life and lifestyles and more specifically how the global water agenda can work so as to produce or further entrench distinctions between different lives and lifestyles Ultimately such differences between individuals and populations that are produced as an effect of water governance are assessed in relation to social sustainability

Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Prospectus 2016 For University Of Durban : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Prospectus 2016 For University Of Durban : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
