Road To Patriotism:

Memorial of the Patriotism of Schuylkill County in the American Slaveholder's Rebellion, 1865 The Road of Awakening Florence Mo Han Aw, 2024-08-17 The rainstorm passed leaving behind droplets of rain dripping rhythmically looking out the sky looks to turning a greyish hue The bustle and din gradually disappear and the school becomes quiet once again School is over as students gradually make their way home I sit in this quiet classroom with a mixture of excitement and agitation waiting for a momentous ritual that would be a watershed moment What kind of ceremony would this be What would my future be Moments later Ms Kwan Man Yiu enters and closes the door behind her She reminds me further You must always meet your leader in public places and wait no more than ten minutes And make sure you lose your tail Remember don't ask anything that doesn't concern you The Party will let you know what you need to know Don't even acknowledge any comrades unless it is someone you report to directly Finally she adds During the time of White Terror things were even more precarious If you try to set up a time to meet over the phone subtract any date or time by one I struggle to remember everything she said and become a comrade thereby rewriting the entire story of my life The Daughters of the American Revolution and Patriotic Memory in the Twentieth Century Simon Wendt, 2020-09-01 In this comprehensive history of the Daughters of the American Revolution DAR one of the oldest and most important women's organizations in United States history Simon Wendt shows how the DAR's efforts to keep alive the memory of the nation's past were entangled with and strengthened the nation's racial and gender boundaries Taking a close look at the DAR's mission of bolstering national loyalty Wendt reveals paradoxes and ambiguities in its activism While the Daughters engaged in patriotic actions long believed to be the domain of men and challenged male centered accounts of US nation building their tales about the past reinforced traditional notions of femininity and masculinity reflecting a belief that any challenge to these conventions would jeopardize the country's stability Similarly they frequently voiced support for inclusive civic nationalism but deliberately shaped historical memory to consolidate white supremacy Using archival sources from across the country Wendt focuses on the DAR's most visible work after its founding in 1890 its commemorations of the American Revolution western expansion and Native Americans He also explores the organization's post World War II history a time that saw major challenges to its conservative vision of America's imagined community This book sheds new light on the remarkable agency and cultural authority of conservative white women in the twentieth century Patriotism Hakluyt Egerton, 1905
