Educational Media Resources on Egypt University of Michigan. Audio-Visual Education Center,1977 Prentice Hall World Explorer: the Ancient World JACOBS,Prentice Hall (School Division),LEVASSEUR,RANDOLPH, Teaching Global History Alan J. Singer,2012-04-27 Teaching Global History challenges prospective and beginning social studies teachers to formulate their own views about what is important to know in global history and why It explains how to organize the curriculum around broad social studies concepts and themes and student questions about humanity history and the contemporary world All chapters include lesson ideas a sample lesson plan with activity sheets primary source documents and helpful charts graphs photographs and maps High school students responses are woven in throughout Additional material corresponding to each chapter is posted online at http://people.hofstra.edu/alan_j_singer The traditional curriculum tends to highlight the Western heritage and to race through epochs and regions leaving little time for an in depth exploration of concepts and historical themes for the evaluation of primary and secondary sources and for students to draw their own historical conclusions Offering an alternative to such pre packaged textbook outlines and materials this text is a powerful resource for promoting thoughtful reflection and debate about what the global history curriculum should be and how to teach it *Catalog of Copyright Entries. Hebrews, the General Letters, and Revelation Charles B. Puskas,2016-10-28 Most New Testament NT introductions because of page limitations and other reasons tend to minimize their treatment of the last nine books of the Christian Bible

from Hebrews to Revelation The focus in these introductions is often on the four Gospels and the Letters of Paul As important as these books are one should not neglect with only a brief survey the treatment of Hebrews the General Letters and the book of Revelation The title given later to the collection Catholic Epistles or General Letters is a reminder of its general appeal to the whole church despite its slow canonical recognition and authorship issues Nevertheless these writings from Hebrews to Revelation continue to capture our attention and ignite our imagination My purpose for this book is to supplement my NT introduction and others like it with a focus on specific questions about each book from Hebrews to Revelation When and why was each book written By whom and to whom was each book written What are some special features of each book How soon or late was each book included in the NT collection Answers to many of these questions are tentative The assured results of scholarship are in continual need of reevaluation Since the 1980s a host of diverse studies have emerged and I have endeavored to include them when they are relevant to the discussion
