

National Student Financial Aid Scheme (NSFAS)

NSFAS is a government loan scheme, with the added incentive of a bursary conversion (maximum of 40%) depending on academic performance.

- If you do well, 40% of this can be converted to a bursary!!
  - If you fail, you will have to pay back EVERYTHING!
- Academically deserving and financially needy students have the opportunity to apply for a loan from NSFAS, part of which can be converted to a bursary, subject to academic results.
  - Loans do not always cover tuition fees and other study costs in full. The amount of the loan is determined, among other things, by the family's financial need and the student's cost of study.
  - Application forms available online: www.nsfas.org.za

Newman,2010-09 Is globalization making our world more equal or less Proponents of globalization argue that it is helping and that in a competitive world no one can afford to discriminate except on the basis of skills Opponents counter that globalization does nothing but provide a meritocratic patina on a consistently unequal distribution of opportunity Yet despite the often deafening volume of the debate there is surprisingly little empirical work available on the extent to which the process of globalization over the past quarter century has had any effect on discrimination Tackling this challenge Discrimination in an Unequal World explores the relationship between discrimination and unequal outcomes in the appropriate geographical and historical context Noting how each society tends to see its particular version of discrimination as universal and obvious the editors expand their set of cases to include a broad variety of social relations and practices However since methods differ and are often designed for particular national circumstances they set the much more ambitious and practical goal of establishing a base with which different forms of discrimination across the world can be compared Derived from a broad array of methods the book draws many important lessons on the new means by which the world creates social hierarchies the democratization of inequality and the disappearance of traditional categories Let's Talk About Varsity ,2009 Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen,2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and it s double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt International Handbook on the Economics of Education Geraint Johnes,Jill Johnes,2007-01-01 is a voluminous and timely collection of 18 essays that addresses a number of core issues on the

Practical Wisdom and Resilience Overcoming Downside Risk Kazuyo Hanai,Rangarirai Gavin Muchetu,Laban Kithinji Kinyua,Yoichi Mine,2025-05-24 This book classifies and assesses the real and perceived risks associated with both the Covid 19 pandemic and government responses to it in seven African countries DR Congo Kenya Ethiopia South Africa Tanzania Uganda and Zimbabwe based on large scale quantitative and qualitative surveys conducted in 2022 2024 It also elucidates the people s resilience in overcoming the risks within their political social and cultural context Although research on COVID 19 has been conducted in various fields particularly in the medical field the analytical perspective of this book is unique COVID 19 prevention policies are considered to have seriously increased other risks such as hunger other infectious diseases interruption of education and various types of human rights violations including increased conflict violence against civilians and political abuse Therefore this book argues that COVID 19 prevention policies as well as the pandemic itself should be regarded as the downside risk that triggers the deterioration of the other potential risks to vulnerable people Depicted here is the account of how trust in government community and family within the existing political social and cultural environment created pandemic politics as elections during the pandemic instrumentalized and politicized government prevention measures Economic distress threatened people s lives more than COVID 19 during lockdowns and severe behavioral restrictions and the spread of misinformation discouraged people from being vaccinated This book will be useful to policy makers and practitioners in international society who are preparing for the next pandemic based on the lessons learned from the COVID 19 pandemic Social Justice and Education in the 21st Century Willie Pearson Jr.,Vijay

Reddy,2021-04-10 The world is not an equal place There are high and low income countries and high and low income households For each group there are differential educational opportunities leading to differential educational outcomes and differential labor market opportunities This pattern often reproduces the privileges and inequalities of groups in a society This book explores this differentiation in education from a social justice lens Comparing the United States and South Africa this book analyzes each country s developmental thinking on education from human capital and human rights approaches in both primary and higher education The enclosed contributions draw from different disciplines including legal studies sociology psychology computer science and public policy Youth and Higher Education in Africa. The Cases of Cameroon, South Africa, Eritrea and Zimbabwe Donald P. Chimanihire,2009 Student activism in Africa at least since the early 1990s has been preoccupied with popular struggles for democracy in both their respective countries and institutions of higher learning The changing socio economic and political conditions in many African countries characterized by the decline in economic growth and the introduction of multi party politics among several other factors have had different impact on students and student political organizations in African universities This book recounts the responses of students to these changes in their attempt to negotiate better living and studying conditions The four case studies contained in the book Cameroon South Africa Zimbabwe and Eritrea clearly reveal the very important aspects of the situation in which African students find themselves in many countries and underscores the need to understand the character and development of higher education on the continent Ministries of Higher Education Vice Chancellors Deans of Students Student Unions and parents will find this book very useful in terms of understanding the tensions that often arise at institutions of higher learning and why solutions seem to be elusive

Corrupted Jonathan D Jansen,2023-02 Through investigatory reports and interviews Jonathan Jansen reveals the structural conditions for chronic dysfunction in a sample of South African universities He reveals the political economy at work and the intense competition for resources on campuses He also provides interventions for these fragile institutions

Knowledge Beyond Colour Lines Monwabisi K. Ralarala,Salochana Lorraine Hassan,Rajani Naidoo,2021-05-25 Knowledge remains timely in education The need for academics to contemplate its relevance worth use and everything in between deems a continuous intellectual project rather than a conundrum to be solved This book takes the South African context by the horns as it challenges the often dormant and traditionalist ways in which higher education spaces see knowledge Through original research and the voices of academics and students this book argues for repurposing knowledge generation knowledge sharing and critical pedagogy so that more inclusive teaching and learning environments can be both imagined and sustained The contentious tensionalities that this creates for LoLT and SoTL in particular are unlocked so as to trouble the South African higher education landscape with the intent to proffer alternative pathways for a knowledge beyond colour lines Prof Shan Simmonds PhD NWU This edited volume bristles with fresh scholarly approaches and insights of an emergent generation of engaged scholars grappling with the issues and problems of higher education in South Africa The
