The Perceptual Structure of Three-Dimensional Art Paul M.W. Hackett, 2016-12-26 This book deals with philosophical aspects regarding the perception of spatial relationships in two and three dimensional art It provides a structural understanding of how art is perceived within the space created by the artwork and employs a mapping sentence and partial order mereology to model perceptual structure It reviews the writing of philosophers such as Paul Crowther and art theorists such as Krauss to establish the need for this research The ontological model established Paul Crowther is used to guide an interactive account of his ontology in the interpretations of the perceptual process of three dimensional abstract art to allow the formulation of a more comprehensive philosophical account The book uniquely combines structuralist and post structuralist approaches to artistic perception and understanding with a conceptual structure from facet theory which is clarified with the help of a mapping sentence and partial order mereology

Social Structure & Person Talcott Parsons, 2010-05-11 A Collection of essays which studies the theoretical problem of relationships between social structure and personality and how these different relationships merit distinct treatment for particular purposes Parsons concludes that in the larger picture their interdependencies are so intimate that bringing them together in an interpretive synthesis is imperative if a balanced understanding of the complex as a whole is to be attained      Law's Violence Austin Sarat, Thomas R. Kearns, 2009-11-12 Seven diverse voices probe the use of violence to enforce law and the effect of this use of violence on law      Contemporary Second- and Third-Person

Autobiographical Writing Christina Schönberger-Stepien, 2023-03-31 This book explores 21st century uses of the second and third person perspective in Anglophone autobiographical narratives by canonical male writers Through detailed readings of contemporary autobiographical works by Paul Auster Julian Barnes J M Coetzee and Salman Rushdie the study demonstrates the multiple aesthetic rhetorical and un ethical implications of the choice of narrative perspective as well as the uncommon step of articulating the self from a perspective which is not I Drawing on rhetorical narratology and autobiography theory the book engages with questions and tensions of subjectivity and relationality the interplay of distance and proximity resulting from the narrative perspective and its effects on the relationship between autobiographer text and reader In addition the book traces relevant guiding principles that the authors use to navigate their self narratives in relation to others such as questions of embodiment visibility grief ethics and politics Situating the narratives in their socio political and cultural context the book uncovers to what extent these autobiographical narratives reflect the authors position between self withdrawal and self promotion as well as their response to questions of male agency self stylisation and celebrity status

B. Reid,2009-08-21 A critique of selectionism and the proposal of an alternate theory of emergent evolution that is causally sufficient for evolutionary biology Natural selection is commonly interpreted as the fundamental mechanism of evolution Questions about how selection theory can claim to be the all sufficient explanation of evolution often go unanswered by today s neo Darwinists perhaps for fear that any criticism of the evolutionary paradigm will encourage creationists and proponents of intelligent design In Biological Emergences Robert Reid argues that natural selection is not the cause of evolution He writes that the causes of variations which he refers to as natural experiments are independent of natural selection indeed he suggests natural selection may get in the way of evolution Reid proposes an alternative theory to explain how emergent novelties are generated and under what conditions they can overcome the resistance of natural selection He suggests that what causes innovative variation causes evolution and that these phenomena are environmental as well as organismal After an extended critique of selectionism Reid constructs an emergence theory of evolution first examining the evidence in three causal arenas of emergent evolution symbiosis association evolutionary physiology behavior and developmental evolution Based on this evidence of causation he proposes some working hypotheses examining mechanisms and processes common to all three arenas and arrives at a theoretical framework that accounts for generative mechanisms and emergent qualities Without selectionism Reid argues evolutionary innovation can more easily be integrated into a general thesis Finally Reid proposes a biological synthesis of rapid emergent evolutionary phases and the prolonged dynamically stable non evolutionary phases imposed by natural selection
