Coaching Winning Model United Nations Teams Edward F. Mickolus, Joseph Brannan, Project Muse, 2013. By some counts Model United Nations (MUN) has become the single most popular extracurricular academic activity among high school students. More than two million high school and college students have assumed the roles of ambassadors from real United Nations member countries participated in spirited debate about the world's most pressing issues and called Point of order. Mr. Chairman. Now in Coaching Winning Model United Nations Teams Ed Mickolus and J. Thomas Brannan give MUN teachers and coaches the information they need to succeed. In this informative volume the authors MUN coaches themselves provide detailed guidance for each step of the MUN path from the first meeting in the teacher's classroom to the final days of an official MUN conference. Coaches will learn about the ins and outs of parliamentary procedure and the most effective ways to help their students draft position papers and resolutions. Most important Mickolus and Brannan illustrate the many ways that teachers can inspire their students to take an active role in making the world a better place. By the time their students move on MUN coaches will have instilled in them such important qualities as empathy, self confidence and grace under pressure. Coaching Winning Model United Nations Teams is a fun useful guide for teachers and coaches who are working to help develop tomorrow's leaders today.

Youth Sport and Spirituality Patrick Kelly S.J., 2015-08-15. One of the ten best recent Catholic sports books. America Magazine. Unsportsmanlike behavior by student athletes or parents at youth sporting events happens with regularity these days. Much recent research reveals that young people are dropping out of sport at alarming rates due to the often toxic elements in the culture of youth sports. The timely innovative essays in Youth Sport and Spirituality present a wide ranging overview that draws on resources from Catholic spiritual and theological traditions to address problems such as these as well as opportunities in youth sport in the United States. The book consists of two sections. In the first prominent scholars in philosophy, psychology, theology and spirituality reflect on how youth sport contributes to the integral development of the person and his or her grasp of spiritual values The second half of the book consists of chapters written by coaches athletic directors and specialists working with youth coaches These practitioners share how their approaches to working with youth in sport contribute to the integral development of their players and their openness to transcendent values The essays examine coaching as ministry youth sport and moral development and how parents can act as partners in youth sports among other topics The book will interest coaches athletic directors and youth ministers in Catholic elementary and high schools in parish settings as well as undergraduate and graduate students in education who are preparing to teach in Catholic schools Contributors Patrick Kelly SJ Daniel A Dombrowski Nicole M LaVoi Mike McNamee Clark Power David Light Shields Brenda Light Bredemeier Richard R Gaillardetz Kristin Komyatte Sheehan Dobie Moser Jim Yerkovich Sherri Retif James Charles Naggi and Edward Hastings
