Imagined Histories Anthony Molho, Gordon S. Wood, 2018-06-05 This collection of essays by twenty one distinguished American historians reflects on a peculiarly American way of imagining the past At a time when history writing has changed dramatically the authors discuss the birth and evolution of historiography in this country from its origins in the late nineteenth century through its present more cosmopolitan character In the book s first part concerning recent historiography are chapters on exceptionalism gender economic history social theory race and immigration and multiculturalism Authors are Daniel Rodgers Linda Kerber Naomi Lamoreaux Dorothy Ross Thomas Holt and Philip Gleason The three American centuries are discussed in the second part with chapters by Gordon Wood George Fredrickson and James Patterson The third part is a chronological survey of non American histories including that of Western civilization ancient history the middle ages early modern and modern Europe Russia and Asia Contributors are Eugen Weber Richard Saller Gabrielle Spiegel Anthony Molho Philip Benedict Richard Kagan Keith Baker Joseph Zizak Volker Berghahn Charles Maier Martin Malia and Carol Gluck Together these scholars reveal the unique perspective American historians have brought to the past of their own nation as well as that of the world Formerly writing from a conviction that America had a singular destiny American historians have gradually come to share viewpoints of historians in other countries about which they write The result is the virtual disappearance of what was a distinctive American voice That voice is the subject of this book

After drafting the Stabat mater in 1832 Rossini wrote no music of consequence for the best part of twenty five years before the clouds lifted and he began composing again in Paris in the late 1850s During this glorious Indian summer of his career he wrote 150 songs and solo piano pieces his Sins of Old Age and his final masterpiece the Petite Messe solennelle The image of Rossini as a gifted but feckless amateur the witty high spirited bon vivant who dashed off The Barber of Seville in a mere thirteen days persisted down the years until the centenary of his death in 1968 inaugurated a process of re evaluation by scholars performers and writers The original 1985 edition of Richard Osborn s Rossini redefined the life and provided detailed analyses of the complete Rossini oeuvre Twenty years on all Rossini s operas have been staged and recorded a Critical Edition of his works is well advanced and a scholarly edition of his correspondence including 250 previously unknown letters from Rossini to his parents is in progress BOOK JACKET New Theory and Practice of Capitalism John Bosco Nkumunue,2014-06-10 Most people today are poor and unemployment continues to run rampant Can capitalism truly lift us up Author John Bosco Nkumunue an economist believes it can as long as the world gets behind a new form and concept of capitalism Nkumunue is on a mission to fight poverty redistribute wealth and create better living conditions for vast numbers of people In this study he outlines how this new form of capitalism would affect the rich the middle class and the poor He explores critical issues such as the key role that demand plays in the economy the unforeseen ways in which liquidity affects us ways in which businesses can bolster markets through investment and ways for consumers can wield power in the marketplace A progressive form of capitalism could alleviate the worlds suffering and narrow the wealth gap by stimulating investment and therefore job growth It has the potential to change the economic classes of the world decrease poverty and end the global economic crisis Conceptual (Re)Constructions of International Law Kostiantyn Gorobets,Andreas Hadjigeorgiou,Pauline Westerman,2022-12-08 This timely book considers the ways in which international law unlike domestic law does not make itself known in a formalized hierarchical structure but needs to be conceptually re constructed by the participants and observers out of a variety of practices and other elements It explores such constructions as well as how these images can be deconstructed and reconstructed World History: An Analytical Survey from Mid-First Millennium to the Twenty-First Century (9th Edition) Laxman D.
