

The background of the entire cover is a blue-toned image. It features a stone statue, possibly of a deity or a powerful figure, with its head tilted back. Inside the statue's head, a bright, glowing brain is visible, with a jagged, lightning-like pattern of light. A brilliant, star-like light emanates from the base of the statue, creating a lens flare effect. The overall atmosphere is ethereal and powerful, with a deep blue color palette and a grainy, textured appearance.

all one God Rabbi Goldberg's exploration of the diversity of disciplines in the Torah demonstrates how naturally the idea of monotheism emerges In Genesis God chooses one family to carry out His mission in history The book of Exodus narrates God's liberation of this family's descendants in order to bring His mission to fruition Leviticus details the laws by which God's people serve Him through ethics ritual even agriculture Numbers begins with the metahistory of God's people as He sustains it with manna and guides it with a pillar of fire and a pillar of cloud then resumes the history of His people as it wages war and prepares to conquer the promised land Fearful of idolatry there Moses in Deuteronomy concludes his exhortation to remain faithful to the invisible presence of God Bible commentary according to Rabbi Goldberg should mirror the many ways God enters into the human experience Offering philosophic inquiry personal reflection and fresh exegesis plus a touch of poetry humor and storytelling God Spoke Once I Heard Twice is a brilliant learned and inspired contribution to an ongoing chronicle of faith
