Attack of the 50 Foot Blockchain David Gerard,2017-07-24 An experimental new Internet based form of money is created that anyone can generate at home people build frightening firetrap computers full of video cards putting out so much heat that one operator is hospitalised with heatstroke and brain damage A young physics student starts a revolutionary new marketplace immune to State coercion he ends up ordering hits on people because they might threaten his great experiment and is jailed for life without parole Fully automated contractual systems are proposed to make business and the law work better the contracts people actually write are unregulated penny stock offerings whose fine print literally states that you are buying nothing of any value The biggest crowdfunding in history attracts 150 million on the promise that it will embody the steadfast iron will of unstoppable code upon release it is immediately hacked and 50 million is stolen How did we get here David Gerard covers the origins and history of Bitcoin to the present day the other cryptocurrencies it spawned including Ethereum the ICO craze and the 2017 crypto bubble and the attempts to apply blockchains and smart contracts to business Plus a case study on blockchains in the music industry Bitcoin and blockchains are not a technology story but a psychology story Remember if it sounds too good to be true it almost certainly is A sober riposte to all the upbeat forecasts about cryptocurrency New York Review of Books A very convincing takedown of the whole phenomenon BBC News

Daily Graphic Ransford Tetteh,2010-09-25 Commerce Business Daily,1999 CERN Courier,2015 COVID-19: Mid- and Long-Term Educational and Psychological Consequences for Students and Educators Isabel Morales-Muñoz,Ricardo Scott,Maria Jose Alvarez-Alonso,2022-05-23 China and Its Small Neighbors Sung Chull Kim,2023-03-01 In China and Its Small Neighbors Sung Chull Kim examines the political implications of the economic asymmetry between China and its small neighbors part of wider changes in international relations brought about by the rise of China While being critical of the current trend that focuses on the China U S rivalry alone Kim argues that a microanalysis of China s advances toward its neighbors is a guide to understanding the trajectory of China s expanding influence and transitions in world politics more broadly Economic asymmetry as seen in trade concentration non transparency and reliance on bilateral aid has made China s small neighbors vulnerable on the political front thus generating potential threats to their sovereignty and independence Because China has the upper hand in the bilateral relationships these weak states practice dual core hedging as a strategy for survival They hedge on China for expected economic benefits and at the same time hedge against their powerful neighbor to mitigate the risks involved in that hedging on Each small state s mode of hedging depends on its degree of vulnerability and its availability of policy instruments such as multilateral institutions and bilateral partnerships with extra regional powers

Being Modern in China Paul Willis, 2019-11-11 This book analyses modernity and tradition in China today and how they combine in striking ways in the Chinese school Paul Willis the leading ethnographer and author of Learning to Labour shows how China has undergone an internal migration not only of masses of workers but also of a mental and ideological kind to new cultural landscapes of meaning which include worship of the glorified city devotion to consumerism and fixation upon the smartphone and the internet Massive educational expansion has been a precondition for explosive economic growth and technical development but at the same time the school provides a cultural stage for personal and collective experience In its closed walls and the inescapability of its scores an astonishing drama plays out between the new and the old with a tapestry of intricate human meanings woven of small tragedies and triumphs secret promises and felt betrayals helping to produce not only exam results but cultural orientations and occupational destinies By exploring the cultural dimension of everyday experience as it is lived out in the school this book sheds new light on the enormous transformations that have swept through China and created the kind of society that it is today a society that is obsessed with the future and at the same time structured by and in continuous dialogue with its past

Making Commons Dynamic Prateep Kumar Nayak, 2021-03-01 With an emphasis on the challenges of sustaining the commons across local to global scales Making Commons Dynamic examines the empirical basis of theorising the concepts of commonisation and decommonisation as a way to understand commons as a process and offers analytical directions for policy and practice that can potentially help maintain commons as commons in the future Focusing on commonisation decommonisation as an analytical framework useful to examine and respond to changes in the commons the chapter contributions explore how natural resources are commonised and decommonised through the influence of multi level internal and external drivers and their implications for commons governance across disparate geographical and temporal contexts It draws from a large number of geographically diverse empirical cases 20 countries in North South and Central America and South and South East Asia They involve a wide range of commons related to fisheries forests grazing wetlands coastal marine rivers and dams aquaculture wildlife tourism groundwater surface freshwater mountains small islands social movements and climate The book is a transdisciplinary endeavour with contributions by scholars from geography history sociology anthropology political studies planning human ecology cultural and applied ecology environmental and development studies environmental science and technology public policy Indigenous tribal studies Latin American and Asian studies and environmental change and governance and authors representing the commons community NGOs and policy Contributors include academics community members NGOs practitioners and policymakers Therefore commonisation decommonisation lessons drawn from these chapters are well suited for contributing to the practice policy and theory of the commons both locally and globally
