Eguíluz, Claudio Mirasso, Raul Vicente, 2021-03-03      HL 111 - Make Or Break: The UK's Digital Future The Stationery Office, 2015 This report is a call to action for the incoming Government in May 2015 The world is being transformed by a series of profound technological changes dominated by digital a second machine age This is already having a significant impact on the UK over the next two decades some economists have estimated that 35% of current jobs in the UK could become automated Digital technology is changing all our lives work society and politics It brings with it huge opportunities for the UK but also significant risks This demands an ambitious approach which will secure the UK's position as a digital leader The Committee recommends that the new Government establishes a single and cohesive Digital Agenda The potential value in doing so is significant the Government estimated that the digital sector alone was worth an estimated 105 billion in gross value added to the UK in 2011 A report by the National Institute of Economic and Social Research in 2013 meanwhile found that the size of the digital economy was almost double official estimates Whatever the difficulties in quantifying the value it is clear that digital is already a substantial driver for growth and will become much more so Digital technology is transforming much more than just one sector of the economy the whole economy has become digitised It would therefore be a mistake to take the digital sector as our sole focus of interest Digital technology is pervasive across all aspects of life so much so that the digital economy is becoming synonymous with the national economy The UK cannot afford to miss the opportunity or shirk the challenges this presents      Commerce Solved Papers YCT Expert Team , 2023-24 NTA UGC NET JRF Commerce Solved Papers      Pregnancy Discrimination and the American Worker Michelle D. Deardorff, James G. Dahl, 2016-04-29 This book explores how the federal courts have addressed the two primary federal statutory protections found in the Pregnancy Discrimination Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act and how law mediates conflict between workplace expectations and the realities of pregnancy While pregnancy discrimination has been litigated under both these laws establish different forms of equality Formal equality requires equal treatment of pregnant women in the workplace and substantive equality requires the worker s needs to be accommodated by the employer Drawing from a unique database of 1 112 cases Deardorff and Dahl discuss how courts have addressed pregnancy through these two different approaches to equality The authors explore the implications for gender equality and the evolution of how pregnancy and pregnancy related conditions in employment can be addressed by employers
