Houghton Mifflin Reading ,2004 Rabbinic Discourse as a System of Knowledge Hannah

Hashkes,2015-03-10 In Rabbinic Discourse as a System of Knowledge Hannah Hashkes employs contemporary philosophy in describing rabbinic reasoning as a rational response to experience Hashkes combines insights from the philosophy of Quine and Davidson with the semiotics of Peirce to construe knowledge as systematic reasoning occurring within a community of inquiry Her reading of the works of Emmanuel Levinas and Jean Luc Marion allows her to create a philosophical bridge between a discourse of God and a discourse of reason This synthesis of pragmatism hermeneutics and theology provides Hashkes with a sophisticated tool to understand Rabbinic Judaism It also makes this study both unique and pathbreaking in contemporary Jewish philosophy and Rabbinic thought Parents and Grandparents as Teachers Paris S. Strom,Robert D. Strom,2025-05-30 A guide for families in teaching infants through age 8 this insightful book showcases how both parents and grandparents can support greater family success and how creative collaboration can produce benefits for each generation Having developed the nation s first curriculum for grandparents and field tested the intervention program with support from the American Association of Retired Persons the authors explore topics like trust in infancy family conversations and child language praise and encouragement alone time peer influence resilience and cultural diversity To bring family members closer together and support child development each chapter includes principles for application ten key concepts and questions for reflection Readers can benefit from the Generational Perspectives Activities presented at the end of each chapter and available online that recommend topics for family conversations and self evaluation for parents and grandparents This book will be invaluable for parent and grandparent readers and may also be of interest to students majoring in family studies and developmental psychology and those preparing to become early childhood or elementary school teachers Young Children ,1991 A Life Experience As No Other: Dare to Seize The Day Together Jennifer Lazarow,Jeffrey Lazarow,2017-02-13 Six years ago two ordinary people that s us set off on an affordable adventure that has enhanced our lives beyond expectation In fact as we approach our mid sixties we exclaim this period to be the most exciting of all Perhaps a fascinating aspect of the concept is that it s available to many people need only identify their desire from life and then pursue it seize it We found our passion it follows that we understand our purpose We embarked on this ongoing journey by giving up our physical home and storing our movable possessions and took to living on the road as we travel in many parts of the world in search of exciting and challenging hikes As we struggle and sweat up and down the mountain slopes the loving relationship we enjoy is further bonded while we face the risks and pleasures on display in this endlessly beautiful planet We don t limit ourselves to a fixed abode rather we try to inhabit the world albeit tiny bits Years before we developed a fascination for hiking particularly to mountain peaks however it could be any activity As an ancillary benefit we discovered the enthrallment of meeting interesting people and being enveloped in different cultures and customs a truly broadening experience The natural beauty existing in the world is beyond belief and seems infinite especially as no scene ever repeats itself The taste of freedom as we became liberated from the daily grind of city life and material possessions is something we never envisioned we always believed we were free Perhaps above it all a process of discovery and self growth has stimulated more meaning and understanding within our lives We also realize the foregoing is but the beginning as we race against the inevitable diminishing of time and good health that stalks us all The book provides visuals in the form of a limited selection of photographs attesting to our adventures The text discusses some personal philosophy anecdotes and experiences of living on the road and in the wilds including incidents and humorous occurrences that make for a full and rounded life
