Plato's Laches Text Plato, 2011-03-15 Laches a general in the Athenian army saw Socrates fight bravely in the battle of Delium When he and Nicias another general are asked to explain the idea of courage they are at a loss and words fail them How does courage differ from thoughtless and reckless audacity Can a lion be said to be courageous What about small children who have little idea of the dangers they face Should we call people courageous who do not know whether their bravery will produce good or bad consequences What kind of education and training promotes both courage and goodness in people whether they are young or old All the Year Round , 1883 Fourth Down! Ralph Henry Barbour, 2022-07-21 Ralph Henry Barbour s Fourth Down delivers an insightful narrative set against the backdrop of Yardley s football driven camaraderie and competition The book reveals not just the strategic intricacies of American football but also delves into the complexities of adolescent transformation Through Barbour s adept use of vivid imagery and compelling character development readers bear witness to the personal trials and triumphs experienced by the boys of Yardley Positioned within the early twentieth century literature it manifests as a fine example of sports fiction that intertwines athletic endeavor with coming of age themes showcasing Barbour s commitment to both literary finesse and the fidelity of his subject matter Renowned for his sportsmanship themed writing Barbour brings authenticity and personal understanding to Fourth Down

His career as an author of young adult literature often reflected his love for sports and the development of character through athletic competition This particular book likely stems from Barbour s own observations and perhaps nostalgia for youth s glories and challenges articulating them into a narrative that celebrates personal growth amid the shared highs and lows of team sports Fourth Down is recommended for readers who appreciate both the exhilaration of sports and the nuanced journey of maturity Barbour s ability to craft a tale where the playing field serves as a metaphor for life challenges and victories will resonate with those who enjoy richly drawn characters and the timeless narrative of human development The book beckons enthusiasts of historical sports fiction and young adults alike to explore the interplay between physical exertion and emotional enlightenment
