Robinson was a journalist and garden writer who advocated for the use of native plants in gardens. He believed that gardens should be designed to reflect the local landscape and that they should be planted with plants that were well suited to the climate. The Edwardian era also saw the rise of the Arts and Crafts movement. The Arts and Crafts movement was a reaction to the mass production of goods that was taking place at the time. Arts and Crafts designers believed that objects should be made by hand and that they should be beautiful as well as functional. The influence of the Arts and Crafts movement can be seen in many Edwardian gardens. Arts and Crafts gardens often featured natural materials such as stone, wood, and brick. They also often included features such as pergolas, arbors, and water features.

Gardens and Blooms of the Edwardian Era is packed with information on every aspect of Edwardian gardening, including the different types of gardens that were popular during this time, the plants that were used, the techniques that were employed, and the most important figures in Edwardian gardening. How to create your own Edwardian inspired garden. Whether you are a seasoned gardener or just someone who appreciates the beauty of nature, this book is sure to inspire you. So sit back, relax, and enjoy a journey through the Edwardian garden. If you like this book, write a review on Google Books.

The Arts & Crafts House Adrian Tinniswood, 1999. Featuring British, European, and American houses from the 1850s to the 1930s, this book lends fresh insight into the lives of the architects and clients who rejected industrialization and fostered the arts and crafts movement. The pivotal roles played by William Morris, Philip Webb, Gertrude Jekyll, Gustav Stickley, and others are documented. 180 color illustrations.
