The Alhambra Robert Irwin,2011-05-26 The Alhambra the red fort on its rocky hill above Granada with its fountained courts and gardens and intricate decoration has long been a byword for exotic and melancholy beauty In a stimulating new book in the Wonders of the World series Robert Irwin Arabist and novelist examines its engrossing and often mysterious history Built by a bloody and threatened dynasty of Muslim Spain the Alhambra was preserved as a monument to the triumph of Christianity Much of what we see is the invention of later generations Its highly sophisticated decoration is not just random but full of hidden meaning Even its purpose palace or theological college is not always clear Its influence on art and on literature orientalist painting and Granada cinemas Washington Irving and Borges has been significant Robert Irwin enables us to understand the Alhambra s history fully The Wonders of the World is a series of books that focuses on some of the world s most famous sites or monuments Their names will be familiar to almost everyone they have achieved iconic stature and are loaded with mythological baggage These monuments have been the subject of many books over the centuries but our aim through the skill and stature of the writers is to get something much more enlightening stimulating even controversial than straightforward histories or guides

Gardens and Gardeners of the Ancient World Linda Farrar,2016-02-29 From the earliest of times people have sought to grow and nurture plants in a garden area

Gardens and Gardeners of the Ancient World traces the beginning of gardening and garden history from Ancient Egypt and Mesopotamia to the Minoans and Mycenaeans Greeks Etruscans and Romans through Byzantine Islamic and Persian gardens right up to the Middle Ages It shows how gardens in each period were designed and cultivated Evidence for garden art and horticulture is gathered from surviving examples of ancient art literature archaeology actual period gardens that have survived the centuries and the wealth of garden myths associated with certain plants These sources bring ancient gardens and their gardeners back to life and provide information on which plants were chosen as garden worthy their setting and the design and appearance of ancient gardens Deities associated with aspects of gardens and the garden s fertility are featured everyone wanted a fertile garden Different forms of public and domestic gardens are explored and the features that you would find there whether paths pools arbors and arches seating or decorative sculpture The ideal garden could be like the Greek groves of the Academy in Athens a garden so fine that it was comparable with that of the mythical king Alcinoos the paradise contemplated by the Islamic world or a personal version of a garden of Eden that Early Christians could create for themselves or in the forecourt of their churches In general books on garden history cover all periods up to the present often placing all ancient gardens in one chapter at the beginning But there is so much of interest to be found in these early millennia Generously illustrated with 150 images with plant lists for each period this is essential reading for everyone interested in garden history and ancient societies

The Nasrid Kingdom of Granada between East and West ,2020-12-07

The Nasrid Kingdom of Granada 1232 1492 was the last Islamic state in al Andalus It has long been considered a historical afterthought even an anomaly but this impression must be rectified here we place the kingdom in a new context within the processes of change that were taking place across all Western Islamic societies in the late Middle Ages Despite being the last Islamic entity in the Iberian Peninsula Granada was neither isolated nor exclusively associated with the nearest Islamic lands The special relationship between Nasrid territory and the surrounding Christian states accelerated historical processes of change This volume edited by Adela F bregas examines the Nasrid kingdom through its politics society economics and culture Contributors Daniel Baloup B rbara Boloix Gallardo Mar a Elena D ez Jorge Adela F bregas ngel Gal n S nchez Alberto Garc a Porras Expiraci n Garc a S nchez Ra l Gonz lez Ar valo Pierre Guichard Antonio Malpica Cuello Christine Mazzoli Guintard Rafael G Peinado Antonio Pel ez Rovira Jos Miguel Puerta V lchez Mar a Dolores Rodr guez G mez Juan Carlos Ruiz Souza Roser Salic i Lluch Bilal Sarr Francisco Vidal Castro Gerard Wieggers Amalia Zome o

A Thousand Moments of Solitude Federico Sanchez,2006-04-10 On November 12 2002 at the age of twenty two my son Mitchell committed suicide His sudden and unexpected death sent me reeling down a path I needed to travel if I ever wanted to escape the forest of grief and loss in which I found myself This book recounts my journey to come to terms with the death of my son The path I started downto fulfill a promise I had made to my son while he was alive to find answers to the mental problems he sufferedtook me places I had not anticipated The path became a network of four intersecting paths and my journey took me far beyond the death of a son to the human condition where we are governed by forces both internal and external over which we have little control and little understanding Intricately connected the four paths explored in this book are 1 the autobiographical the story of my life with my son Mitchell as we struggled with the mental problems that eventually led to his suicide 2 the diagnostic the various diagnostic tools available to psychiatrists which illustrate the level of knowledge in the field and show some of the failings of our present approach to mental disorders 3 historical fiction narrative accounts of the lives and deaths by suicide of both historical and fictional characters including the son of Queen Isabela of Spain Meriwether Lewis Vincent Van Gogh Miguel a slave working at the Count of Valencianas silver mine La Boca del Infierno in 18th century Mexico and Michele a passenger on the Titanic By telling these stories sometimes in the first person I found a way to express my own anguish and pain something I could not do directly as well as a way to explore further my relationship with my son and my sons complexity and fullness as a person 4 scientific explanation of how the brain works a theory of how the brain works explaining in detail how mental images and thoughts are formed and travel through the nervous system how we live in a world of illusions and how mental illness can be explained in these terms These four paths are intricately connected and reinforce each other in the book The diagnostic explains in technical terms what the autobiographical recounts the autobiographical recounts events which help to explain the complexities and subtleties of human behavior within the context of how the brain works the historical fiction ties into the autobiographical elements and the diagnostic The book also confronts the issue of suicide itself It answers that elusive question Why do people commit suicide The book presents a personal honest biographical testimonial of the experience of the suicide of a son The book speaks from experience not some abstract philosophical point of view The organization and contents of the book are unique a weaving together of four distinct yet related subjects the suicide of a son the classification of mental illnesses narratives of historical fiction and a theory of how the brain works The most outstanding feature of this book is that it presents for the first time to my knowledge a comprehensive theory of the brain that explains mental disorders such as dementia delirium depression manic depression and schizophrenia For the first time suicide is placed in a scientific context and why and how it happens is explained In particular the brain theory here is presented in a simplified form accessible to most particularly because of the anecdotes and stories that help illustrate how the brain functions and malfunctions The book also deals with other related subjects the importance of love in our lives the possibilities of past lives how to deal with grief and loss the possible reasons for the rise of suicide rates in industrialized nations the failures of the system to cure and prevent suicide and other mental disorders and possible directions that therapies and medications might explore in the future The writing is forceful
