Duda, 2014-01-10 As monsters in popular media have evolved and grown more complex so have those who take on the job of stalking and staking them This book examines the evolution of the contemporary monster hunter from Bram Stoker's Abraham Van Helsing to today's non traditional monster hunters such as Blade Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Watchmen Critically surveying a diverse range of books films television shows and graphic novels this study reveals how the monster hunter began as a white upper class educated male and became everything from a vampire to a teenage girl with supernatural powers Now often resembling the monsters they've vowed to conquer modern characters occupy a gray area where the battle is often with their own inner natures as much as with the evil they fight The Complete Chronicles of Barsetshire: The Warden, Barchester Towers, Doctor Thorne, Framley Parsonage, The Small House at Allington & The Last Chronicle of Barset Anthony Trollope, 2024-01-06 In The Complete Chronicles of Barsetshire Anthony Trollope intricately weaves together a tapestry of life in the fictional English county of Barsetshire showcasing the interplay between social classes clerical life and moral dilemmas The series comprises six novels including iconic works such as The Warden and Barchester Towers Trollope's signature narrative style employs detailed character development and incisive wit revealing the complexities of human relationships against the backdrop of Victorian society The blend of realism and satire presents a vivid portrait of 19th century ecclesiastical and provincial life making the series a cornerstone of the English literary canon Anthony Trollope 1815-1882 was not only a prolific novelist but also a keen observer of social dynamics having worked as a post office clerk where he gained insights into the societal fabric of England His experiences provided a rich foundation for his writings particularly his fascination with the Anglican Church and its constituents which he masterfully captures in the Barsetshire Chronicles Trollope's unique perspective on the tensions between ambition and duty coupled with his sharp humor often mirrors his own struggles and triumphs in a rapidly changing society I highly recommend The Complete Chronicles of Barsetshire to readers who appreciate nuanced character studies and explorations of moral and ethical conflicts Trollope's ability to intertwine humor with serious issues makes these novels both enlightening and entertaining This collection is essential not only for fans of Victorian literature but for anyone interested in the profound yet relatable challenges of human existence The Good it Promises, the Harm it Does Carol J. Adams, Alice Crary, Lori Gruen, 2023 The Good It Promises the Harm It Does is the first edited volume to critically engage with Effective Altruism EA It brings together writers from diverse activist and scholarly backgrounds to explore a variety of unique grassroots movements and community organizing efforts By drawing attention to these responses and to particular cases of human and animal harms this book represents a powerful call to attend to different voices and projects and to elevate activist traditions that EA lacks the resources to assess and threatens to squelch. The contributors reveal the weakness inherent within the ready made top down solutions that EA offers in response to many global problems and offers in their place substantial descriptions of more meaningful and just social engagement. Keith County Journal John Janovy, 1996-02-01 To learn from nature not about nature was the imperative that took John Janovy Jr and his students into the sandhills marshes grasslands canyons lakes and streams of Keith County in western Nebraska. The biologist explores the web of interrelationships among land animals and human beings. Even termites snails and barn swallows earn respect and assume significance in the overall scheme of things. Janovy reminiscent of Henry David Thoreau in his acute powers of observation and search for wisdom has written a new foreword for this Bison Books edition. John Janovy Jr is Varner Professor at the School of Biological Sciences University of Nebraska Lincoln and director of the Cedar Point Biological Station. He is the author of Back in Keith County and On Becoming a Biologist also available as Bison Books. Mesopotamian Chronicles Jean-Jacques Glassner, 2025-02-15 All the chronicle literature of ancient Mesopotamia from the early second millennium to Seleucid times is collected in this English translation of Glassner's Chroniques Mésopotamiennes. Paris: Les Belles Lettres, 1993. In addition to revising and supplementing the French edition, this volume provides transcriptions of the cuneiform and English translations of every example of Sumerian Assyrian and Babylonian chronographic literature as well as seminal essays on the genre and on Mesopotamian historiography in general. The Animal Other in Narratives of Conquest Stacy Hoult, 2023-04-11 The Animal Other in Narratives of Conquest: Uncanny Encounters investigates the functions of nonhuman animal imagery in diverse narratives of the Conquest of the Americas. The author's explications of film poetry literary and popular fiction and theme park spaces draw on postcolonial and animal theory deconstructive and Freudian literary criticism and radical social theory. She argues that animals in these texts function on two levels while they play a key role in the development of both Indigenous and European characters. Depictions of their treatment and symbolic charge consistently work to disrupt narratives that seek to present the Conquest as a mutually beneficial encounter between two cultures. The close readings of animal imagery in texts ranging from Pablo Neruda's poetry to the animated film The Road to El Dorado represent a fresh approach to questions surrounding the depictions of Indigenous Americans and the motivations tactics and lasting contributions of the invading culture. Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle James Silk Buckingham, John Sterling, Frederick Denison Maurice, Henry Stebbing, Charles Wentworth Dilke, Thomas Kibble Hervey, William Hepworth Dixon, Norman Maccoll, Vernon Horace Rendall, John Middleton Murry, 1839 Pets in America Katherine C. Grier, 2006 Filled with illustrations reflecting the whimsy the devotion and the commerce that have shaped centuries of American pet keeping a portrait of Americans' relationships with animals shows how the history of pets has evolved alongside changing ideas about human nature child development and community life.
