It offers a transition to reading these authors by presenting slightly modified versions of poems before the students read the authentic Latin verse as review. Vocabulary, reading helps, grammar reviews with exercises, and discussion questions are included, as well as sections on metrics, poetic devices, and a complete glossary. Latin for the New Millennium: Level 2: student text Milena

Minkova, Terence Tunberg, 2009-10-15 Latin for the New Millennium Levels 1 and 2 is a complete introductory course to the Latin language suitable for both high school and college students consisting of two volumes each accompanied by a teacher's manual and students workbooks. The strategy employed for teaching and learning incorporates the best of both the reading approach and the more abstract grammatical method. The choice of vocabulary in each chapter reflects ancient authors commonly studied for the AP Latin examinations. There are exercises designed for oral use as well as a substantial core of more conventional exercises in each chapter. The readings, pictures and supplementary inserts on cultural information illuminate Roman life, civilization, Roman history and mythology as well as the continuing use of Latin after antiquity and its vigorous literary tradition in such periods as the Middle Ages and Renaissance. Each chapter also includes derivatives, the influence of Latin vocabulary on English and selected proverbs or common Latin sayings. Latin for the New Millennium Level 3 builds on the strong foundation of Levels 1 and 2 and provides students an in-depth experience of Caesar, Catullus, Cicero, Horace, Ovid and Vergil as well as of the Renaissance writer Erasmus. This text provides students an introduction to unadapted Latin literature and builds their literary analysis skills. Adapted from publisher website: Ovid: A LEGAMUS Transitional Reader Caroline A.
