

The background of the cover is a dramatic seascape. In the foreground, a large, dark, and jagged piece of shipwrecked wood or metal protrudes from the churning, dark green and blue water. The water is turbulent with white foam from the waves. In the background, a bright, hazy sun or light source is visible on the horizon, creating a strong lens flare effect that illuminates the scene from the right. The sky is a mix of green and yellow, suggesting a storm or a very bright day. The overall mood is one of awe and divine power.

What Do You Believe? Michelle Brignone,2025-03-18 Almost 80 percent of Americans say they believe in God with most religions teaching peace love and understanding yet crime lies hate racism misogyny discrimination and violence all seem to be reaching pandemic proportions Maybe we don t believe what we think we do There is a disconnect between our actions and what we say we believe and it s tearing us apart Society cannot afford for this disconnect to continue Either we don t know what we truly believe or we just don t care anymore I am an optimist and hoping the answer is people don t really know or don t remember what their true beliefs are What Do You Believe does not tell people what to believe it merely asks questions to encourage readers to figure out for themselves what exactly they believe and why they believe it It then asks readers to consider how their beliefs influence or not their actions to help readers bring their actions and beliefs into harmony
