from Daughter

In the mirror of life, bright and true,
Mom, I see the kindest reflection of you.
In every gesture, in each caring touch,
I see you, feel you, love you much.

Gleaming in my eyes, your love, pure,
In every reflection, you beautifully assure.
In every image, every caring move,
Mom, your love, deeply I prove.

Gazing into life's mirror so divine,
I cherish the reflection that is thine.
In every semblance, love does prove,
I am you, in every heartfelt move.

Pregnancy Poems from Mother To Daughter:

Encyclopedia of Motherhood Andrea O'Reilly, 2010-04-06 In the last decade the topic of motherhood has emerged as a distinct and established field of scholarly inquiry A cursory review of motherhood research reveals that hundreds of scholarly articles have been published on almost every motherhood theme imaginable The Encyclopedia of Motherhood is a collection of approximately 700 articles in a three volume A to Z set exploring major topics related to motherhood from geographical historical and cultural entries to anthropological and psychological contributions In human society few institutions are as important as motherhood and this unique encyclopedia captures the interdisciplinary foundation of the subject in one convenient reference The Encyclopedia is a comprehensive resource designed to provide an understanding of the complexities of motherhood for academic and public libraries and is written by academics and institutional experts in the social and behavioural sciences

Women of Color Elizabeth Brown-Guillory, 2010-06-28 Interest in the mother daughter relationship has never been greater yet there are few books specifically devoted to the relationships between daughters and mothers of color To fill that gap this collection of original essays explores the mother daughter relationship as it appears in the works of African American Asian American Mexican American Native American Indian and Australian Aboriginal women writers Prominent among the writers considered here are Toni Morrison Alice Walker Maxine Hong Kingston Cherrie Moraga Leslie Marmon Silko and Amy Tan Elizabeth Brown Guillory and the other essayists examine the myths and reality surrounding the mother daughter relationship in these writers works They show how women writers of color often portray the mother daughter dyad as a love hate relationship in which the mother painstakingly tries to convey knowledge of how to survive in a racist sexist and classist world while the daughter rejects her mother s experiences as invalid in changing social times This book represents a further opening of the literary canon to twentieth century women of color Like the writings it surveys it celebrates the joys of breaking silence and moving toward reconciliation and growth

Mothers and Daughters

June Cotner, 2001 A selection of poems that explore the bond between mothers and daughters grouped by stages of life from pregnancy to partings

Janani - Mothers, Daughters, Motherhood Rinki Bhattacharya, 2006

Out of the Cradle Endlessly Rocking Nephie Christodoulides, 2021-11-15 Out of the Cradle Endlessly Rocking delves deeply into the notion of motherhood in Sylvia Plath s work in order to redeem Plath from the one dimensional role assigned to her of the suicidal father obsessed poet Written from the theoretical perspective of Julia Kristeva s theory of subject formation the book focuses on Plath s baby poems in which mother figures are seen as subjects in process oscillating between authentication and non authentication in motherhood Furthermore since the mother is always a daughter part of the discussion centers on Plath s daughterhood poetry in which daughter figures are engaged in an endless struggle to release themselves from a suffocating maternal hold and achieve their own linguistic individuation Finally Plath s works for children The Bed Book The It Doesn t Matter Suit Mrs Cherry s Kitchen as well as her fairy tale poems largely ignored until now are read as manifestations of the self s regressive journey to once below a time to grasp an elusive pre symbolic organization and take signification back to infancy The book makes extensive use of Plath's drafts mainly of the Ariel poems her recycled materials annotated books from her personal library published and unpublished material from The Lilly Library Archive The Mortimer Rare Book Room and The Ted Hughes Archive in Emory Maternal Regret: Resistances, Renunciations, and Reflections Andrea O'Reilly, 2022-06-08 This collection considers how maternal regret as it is conveyed in remorse resentment dissatisfaction and disappointment troubles the assumptions and mandates of normative motherhood and how it is explored and critiqued in creative non fiction film literature and social media Maternal regret is also examined in relation to the estrangement of mother and child and the remorse and grief felt by both mothers and children caused by the abandonment of mother or child Finally the collection explores how regret opens the space for maternal erudition enlightenment and evolution and makes possible maternal empowerment The book is organized by way of these three sections the first Resistances examines how maternal regret as conveyed in remorse disillusionment and resentment counters and corrects normative motherhood the second Renunciations looks at how regret is experienced in mother child abandonment and the third Reflections explores how regret may be an opportunity for maternal knowledge and power Overall the collection serves to debunk and destroy the final taboo of normative motherhood that of maternal regret Mothers voicing regret as journalist Kingston writes signals a large groundswell of maternal reckoning one that has been compared to the MeToo campaign Poems at the Edge of Differences Renate Papke, 2008 This study consists of two parts The first part offers an overview of feminism's theory of differences The second part deals with the textual analysis of poems about mothering by women from India the Caribbean and Africa Literary criticism has dealt with the representation of mothering in prose texts The exploration of lyrical texts has not yet come Since the late 1970s the acknowledgement of and the commitment to difference has been foundational for feminist theory and activism This investigation promotes a differentiated locational feminism Friedman The comprehensive theoretical discussion of feminism's different concepts of gender race ethnicity and mothering builds the foundation for the main part the presentation and analysis of the poems The issue of mothering foregrounds the communicative aspect of women's experience and wants to bridge the gap between theory and practice This study however does not intend to specify mothering as a universal and unique feminine characteristic It underlines a metaphorical use and discusses the concepts of nurturing maternal practice and social parenthood Regarding the extensive material this study understands itself as an explorative not concluding investigation placed at the intersections of gender studies postcolonial and classical literary studies Most of all it aims at initiating a dialogue and interchange between scholars and students in the Western and the Third World Mother Daughter Wisdom Christiane Northrup, M.D., 2006-03-28 From the best selling author of Women's Bodies Women's Wisdom and The Wisdom of Menopause With such groundbreaking bestsellers as Women's Bodies Women's Wisdom and The Wisdom of Menopause Dr Christiane Northrup is one of today's most trusted and visionary medical experts

Now she presents her most profound and revolutionary approach to women's health. The mother-daughter relationship sets the stage for our state of health and well-being for our entire lives. Because our mothers are our first and most powerful female role models, our most deeply ingrained beliefs about ourselves as women come from them. And our behavior in relationships with food, with our children, with our mates, and with ourselves is a reflection of those beliefs. Once we understand our mother-daughter bonds, we can rebuild our own health, whatever our age, and create a lasting positive legacy for the next generation. Mother Daughter Wisdom introduces an entirely new map of female development, exploring the five facets of feminine power, which range from the basics of physical self-care to the discovery of passion and purpose in life. This blueprint allows any woman, whether or not she has children, to repair the gaps in her own upbringing and create a better adult relationship with her mother. If she has her own daughter, it will help her be the mother she has always wanted to be. Written with warmth, enthusiasm, and rare intelligence, Mother Daughter Wisdom is an indispensable book destined to change lives and become essential reading for all women. Family Stories, Poetry and Women's Work Sandra L. Faulkner, 2014-11-26

This book is a memoir in poetry about family stories, mother-daughter relationships, women's work, mothering, writing, family secrets, and patterns of communication in close relationships. Faulkner knits connections between a DIY, do-it-yourself, value economics, and family culture through the use of poems and images, which present four generations of women in her family and trouble women's work of mothering, cooking, and crafting. Family stories anchor family culture and provide insight into relational and family life. This work may be used as a teaching tool to get us to think about the stories that we tell and don't tell in families and the importance of how family is created, maintained, and altered in our stories. The poetry voices the themes of economic and collective family self-reliance and speaks to cultural discourses of feminist resistance and resilience, relational and personal identities. This book can be read for pleasure as a collection of poetry or used as a springboard for reflection and discussion in courses such as family communication, sociology of gender, and the family psychology of women, relational communication, and women's studies. Sandra's innovative arts-based social science text demystifies poetic inquiry, providing readers both an embodied example of excellence and detailed exercises for use when practicing one's own craft. Elizabeth A. Suter, University of Denver. Through this book, Faulkner presents a refreshing way of understanding, researching, and teaching about the communication in families. Pamela J. Lannutti, La Salle University. Faulkner takes readers into the personal lives of four generations of mothers and daughters, poetically uncovering concrete aspects of social processes of family, motherhood, relationships, and writing. A fusion of social science and art that invites engagement of all your senses to understand the felt truth of lived experience. Carolyn Ellis, University of South Florida. Captivating, nuanced, and often surprising, Faulkner's work is a vital contribution that bridges the chasm between traditional interpersonal communication research and brave new artistic worlds for relationship studies. Gender, Pregnancy and Power in Eighteenth-Century Literature Jenifer Buckley, 2017-07-28 This book reveals the cultural significance of the pregnant woman by examining major eighteenth century debates concerning separate spheres man midwifery performance marriage the body education and creative imagination Exploring medical economic moral and literary ramifications this book engages critically with the notion that a pregnant woman could alter the development of her foetus with the power of her thoughts and feelings Eighteenth century authors sought urgently to define understand and control the concept of maternal imagination as they responded to and provoked fundamental questions about female intellect and the relationship between mind and body Interrogating the multiple models of maternal imagination both separately and as a holistic set of socio cultural components the author uncovers the discourse of maternal imagination across eighteenth century drama popular print medical texts poetry and novels This overdue rehabilitation of the pregnant woman in literature is essential reading for scholars of the eighteenth century gender and literary history Mother Without Child Elaine Tuttle Hansen, 1997-01-01 This is a conceptually innovative book which expands the meaning of motherhood to include mothers without child it is also a compassionate political book which refuses the boundary between good enough and bad mothers Mother Without Child is an engaging witty and provocative literary study which should fascinate anyone who is interested in mothering or in looking for new ways to talk about motherhood without erasing some women s experience or dividing mothers from each other Sara Ruddick author of Maternal Thinking Toward a Politics of Peace Hansen positions her study in a genuinely new space taboo ground which demands not only a great deal of courage to address but also enormous intelligence and insight Hansen is up to this task hers is a pioneer study that will have a significant impact on the ways that non procreative motherhood is discussed and understood Madelon Sprengnether author of The Spectral Mother Freud Feminism and Psychoanalysis Since the beginnings of the second wave of feminism in the 1960s feminist scholars have been obsessed with motherhood Mother Without Child takes us to the next stage in this fascinated and fascinating exploration Through illuminating readings of contemporary stories of thwarted motherhood Hansen challenges the persistent and constraining definitions of the good and even the good enough mother She enjoins us to listen to the moving devastating and often inspiring stories of mothers who survive the loss of their children and she urges us to find there not the angry voices of feminist daughters who cannot forgive their patriarchal mothers but alternative stories of a different maternity that can lead us to alternative plots and visions of women's lives We need this book Marianne Hirsch author of The Mother Daughter Plot Narrative Psychoanalysis Feminism A careful committed and freshly clarifying voice Hansen's graceful prose and finely interwoven explorations are much needed at this time Through readings of contemporary fiction she enriches our vocabulary for discussing the overdetermined topic of motherhood and deepens our understanding of both its psychological and contemporary political dimensions Mother Without Child is a book for historians and social scientists as well as literary scholars Laura Doyle author of Bordering on the Body The Racial Matrix of Modern Fiction and Culture

Space and Place in Children's Literature, 1789 to the Present Maria Sachiko Cecire, Hannah Field, Malini Roy, 2016-03-09 Focusing on questions of space and locale in children's literature this collection explores how metaphorical and physical space can create landscapes of power knowledge and identity in texts from the early nineteenth century to the present The collection is comprised of four sections that take up the space between children and adults the representation of real world places fantasy travel and locales and the physical space of the children's book as object In their essays the contributors analyze works from a range of sources and traditions by authors such as Sylvia Plath Maria Edgeworth Gloria Anzald a Jenny Robson C S Lewis Elizabeth Knox and Claude Ponti While maintaining a focus on how location and spatiality aid in defining the child's relationship to the world the essays also address themes of borders displacement diaspora exile fantasy gender history home leaving and homecoming hybridity mapping and metatextuality With an epilogue by Philip Pullman in which he discusses his own relationship to image and locale this collection is also a valuable resource for understanding the work of this celebrated author of children's literature

The Same Solitude Catherine Ciepiela, 2018-09-05 Still we have the same solitude the same journeys and searching and the same favorite turns in the labyrinth of literature and history Boris Pasternak to Marina Tsvetaeva One of the most compelling episodes of twentieth century Russian literature involves the epistolary romance that blossomed between the modernist poets Marina Tsvetaeva and Boris Pasternak in the 1920s Only weeks after Tsvetaeva emigrated from Russia in 1922 Pasternak discovered her poetry and sent her a letter of praise and admiration Tsvetaeva's enthusiastic response began a decade long affair conducted entirely through letters This correspondence written across the widening divide separating Soviet Russia from Russian migrants in continental Europe offers a view into the overlapping worlds of literary creativity sexual identity and political affiliation Following both sides of their conversation Catherine Ciepiela charts the poets changing relations to each other to the extraordinary political events of the period and to literature itself

The Same Solitude presents the first full account of this affair of letters and poems from its beginning in the summer of 1922 to its denouement in the 1930s Drawing on many previously untranslated letters and poems Ciepiela describes the poets mutual influence both in the course of their lives and the development of their art Neither poet saw any separation between a poet s life and work and Ciepiela treats each poet s letters and poems as a single text She discusses the poets famous triangular correspondence with Rainer Maria Rilke in 1926 and she addresses the profound significance of Tsvetaeva for Pasternak who is often perceived mistakenly Ciepiela asserts as the more detached partner Further this book expands our understanding of poetic modernism by showing how the poets worked through ideas about gender and writing in the context of what they themselves called a literary marriage

Contemporary Chicana Poetry Marta E. Sanchez,2023-04-28 In this first book length study of the works of Chicano women writers Marta Ester Sanchez introduces the reader to a group of Chicanas who in the 1970s began to reexamine and reevaluate their gender and cultural identity through poetic language The term Chicana refers here to women of Mexican heritage who live and write in the United States The works of four contemporary Chicana poets Alma Villanueva Lorna Dee Cervantes Lucha Corpi and Bernice Zamora are the focus of this volume This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1986 In this first book length study of the works of Chicano women writers Marta Ester Sanchez introduces the reader to a group of Chicanas who in the 1970s began to reexamine and reevaluate their gender and cultural identity through poetic language The term

Modern Confessional Writing Jo Gill,2006-03-29 This collection of essays provides a critique of the popular and powerful genre of confessional writing Contributors discuss a range of poetry prose and drama including the work of John Berryman Anne Sexton Ted Hughes and Helen Fielding

Motherhood and Creativity in Contemporary Self-Life Writing Alice Braun,2024-08-21 This book aims to study the representation of motherhood in self life writing by English speaking authors It highlights the particular issues women writers are faced with when they try to combine their vocation as artists with their duties to their children For those women who claim their right to be both mothers and writers several cultural myths need to be taken down chief among which is the representations that we have of what being an artist should be like as well as the role a mother should have towards her children This book looks at self life writing by women from English speaking countries to reveal the common themes and tropes which recur in texts written on the subject of motherhood by looking at them from both a literary and a cultural perspective It also aims to demonstrate that a new generation of women writers is taking up the subject and forging a new literary tradition

British Women Poets of the Long Eighteenth Century Paula R. Backscheider,Catherine E. Ingrassia,2022-10-01 This anthology gathers 368 poems by 80 British women poets of the long eighteenth century Few of these poems have been reprinted since originally published and all are crucial to understanding fully the literary history of women writers Paula R Backscheider and Catherine E Ingrassia demonstrate the enormous diversity of poetry produced during this time by organizing the poems in three broad and deliberately overlapping categories by genre establishing that women wrote in all of the forms that men did with equal mastery and creativity by theme offering a revisionary look at the range of topics these writers addressed including war ecology friendship religion and the stages of life and by the poems more specific focus on the women's experiences as writers Backscheider and Ingrassia have selected poems that represent the best work of skilled poets creating a wonderful mix of canonical and little known pieces They include the complete texts of longer poems that are abridged or omitted in other collections Their substantial part introductions textual notes bibliographical information and biographical sketches situate the poets and their writings within the cultural and political milieu in which they appeared To generate further scholarship on this subject this essential anthology puts primary texts in front of students scholars and general readers It fills the persistent need to document women's poetic expression during the long eighteenth century and to rewrite the literary history of the period a history from which women have largely been excluded
