Chretien de Troyes and the Dawn of Arthurian Romance William Farina, 2014-01-10 During the late 12th century the Arthurian legends first took their form in the imagination of French speaking romancers Foremost among these poets was the great Chretien de Troyes credited with incorporating into the Arthurian tradition the quest for the Holy Grail and the adulterous affair between Lancelot and Guinevere This critical text explores the French roots of the legends and the source material of the individual characters with special attention to the creative role played by de Troyes whose contribution to the saga continues to shape and inform the modern imagination Europe 1780 - 1830 Franklin L. Ford, 2014-01-21 Europe

1780 1830 rapidly established itself as a standard introduction to European history in the age of the French Revolution and its aftermath when it first appeared Now for the first time the book has been fully revised updated and expanded The half century covered constitutes one of the most complex eventful and rapidly changing of any in Europe s history It is a period whose emphasis on conflict and political crisis combines daring innovation with the stubborn persistence of many older attitudes and patterns of human behaviour Professor Ford explores these tensions throughout and he gives his readers a powerful sense of the extraordinary energy in every aspect of human activity that characterised the time 180
