

LISBON

Dear Mom,
Said you're going to Lisbon when will you
come back again?
Say your coming back again I'm going home
up in the clouds over the ocean I want to come down
Said you're going to Lisbon when will you
come back again?

Slim And The Beast:

Slim and the Beast Samuel L. Barrantes, 2014-11-11 Inner Landscapes Ron Mottram, 1984 Sam Shepard has so often been called the preeminent playwright of his generation that the statement goes almost unchallenged today. Some have gone further in their praise. Partisan Review for example has described him as one of the two greatest dramatists of the American theater the other being Eugene O'Neill. But despite that praise and despite the fact that his plays have won numerous awards including the Pulitzer Prize there have been until now no extended studies of his work. Although primarily giving literary and dramatic analysis Mottram also constructs a biographical context for the plays that is a blend of straightforward fact and Shepard's imaginative recreations of significant events in his own life. Shepard once wrote I'm taking notes in as much detail as possible on an event that's happening somewhere inside me that event fueled by what Shepard has called a library of stored images and experiences constitutes an inner landscape that is expressed throughout the plays as well as in his collections of prose and poetry. This study traces some of the prominent features of that inner landscape showing that Sam Shepard like Walt Whitman before him celebrates himself while simultaneously projecting a vision of America that is often profoundly disturbing. Wyoming Folklore Federal Writers' Project, 2010-12-01 In 1935 in the depths of the Great Depression Franklin Roosevelt issued an executive order creating the Federal Writers Project (FWP). Out of work teachers, writers, and scholars fanned out across the country to collect and document local lore. This book reveals the remarkable results of the FWP in Wyoming at a time when it was still possible to interview Civil War veterans and former slaves, homesteaders, and Oregon Trail migrants, soldiers of the Great War, and Native Americans who remembered Little Big Horn. The work of the FWP in Wyoming collected and edited here for the first time comprises a rich repository of folklore and history and a firsthand look at the Old West in the process of becoming the new American frontier. Wyoming Folklore presents the legends, local and oral histories, and pioneer stories that defined the state in the early twentieth century.

Slim's Table Mitchell Duneier, 2015-12-21 A richly detailed and highly compassionate ethnographic study of a core group of black men who daily frequent Valois, a cafeteria in Chicago's Hyde Park. A Javier Treviño Humanitas Society Award. At the Valois See Your Food cafeteria on Chicago's South Side, black and white men gather over cups of coffee and steam table food. Mitchell Duneier, a sociologist, spent four years at the Valois writing this moving profile of the black men who congregate at Slim's Table. Praised as a marvelous study of those who should not be forgotten by The Wall Street Journal, Slim's Table helps demolish the narrow sociological picture of black men and simple media-reinforced stereotypes. In between is a respectable citizenry too often ignored and little understood. Slim's Table is an astonishment. Duneier manages to fling open windows of perception into what it means to be working class black, how a caring community can proceed from the most ordinary transactions, all the while smashing media-induced stereotypes of the races and race relations. Citation for Chicago Sun Times Chicago Book of the Year Award. An instant classic of ethnography that will provoke debate and provide insight for years to
