man who scratched her face and is sickened by the sight of the man on the floor He's wearing a collar like her own one that stops him from shifting and healing Still so beautiful even with the scar he says She fidgets warily and tries to turn away Don't he says firmly taking hold of her collar and gripping it tightly I would've taken you for myself She briefly catches his eyes before blushing and abruptly turning her gaze elsewhere She feels vulnerable with him dazzled and overpowered by his mere presence Perhaps it is going to be this way with all the Alphas she meets but she suspects Alpha Aiden commands power Alas Damien stated his claim for you even before the hunt started he says with mild distaste I'd take this off so you can heal but you'd just run off the second I do wouldn't you he says The only noise she offers up is a grunt of pain when he presses his fingers into the scratch marks on her cheek He squeezes his fingers making her pucker her lips How bout a kiss before you go hmm He doesn't wait for her to answer just pulls her face to his and press a wet kiss on her lips His hand clutches her throat pulling her forward and she quivers her lips parting in stunned shock He does not try to taste her and she finds the thought painful She arches into him trying to deepen the kiss His lips curve upwards in satisfaction He is the one to break the kiss It takes a moment for her to be herself again for the fog of her desire to lift When it does heat rushes to her cheeks She reels back shock and humiliation on her face You disgust me He laughs I disgust you Wait till you meet the man who bought you He places the mask back on her face bodily with the full weight of his own She trashes beneath him strong but not strong enough to buck him off completely He keeps her pinned with surprising ease and can't help but marvel at how soft her fur is how nice it feels to have her under him like she belongs there She smells like tree bark and twigs like she's been trying to live on a rabbit's diet for too long There's blood on her the metallic stench almost overwhelming the stench of fear and pain He can hear her rasping breath and the whine of pain she makes when the rabbits started to move away from her disappearing over the top of the gully before she can pull herself off him and gather them back She makes a deep growling noise that vibrates through his bones and then starts mewling It's soft painful noise that almost makes him release her For god's sake be gentle his uncle growls but knows better than to try and approach them aware that this is his territory and therefore his prey He doesn't inform his uncle that his hold is gentle He's barely putting weight on her now She bristles her lips pulling away from her teeth in an angry snarl He growls at the large cat all teeth and anger She trashes beneath him growling in agitation Submit he growls keeping her pinned The little lynx growls and tries to get up Submit he snarls pressing down on her back She makes a soft keening noise as the pressure increases He's been in enough fights to know that it will take more than the chokehold to render her unconscious She continues to buck against him trying to throw him off her with the weight of her body but her attempts are futile Donovan you're being unreasonable We don't even know if she's conscious his uncle argues She just has to submit he says The kit whimpers and as if she understood that and then flops onto the ground tilting her neck to the side in a sign of submission Good girl he says releasing his hold on her
