Languaging Diversity Volume 2 David Britain,Siria Guzzo,2016-09-23 This volume explores the complex relationship between language and identity from various critical perspectives and by means of different research methodologies Following the earlier collection Languaging Diversity Identities Genres Discourses this book provides further insights into the multifaceted process of identity construction through language The choice of dealing with the broad concept of diversity underlines the inclusiveness of this text which was conceived to analyse how identities are linguistically and socially construed maintained and challenged in a vast array of sociolinguistic contexts The choice of collecting papers concerning the thorny issue of language and diversity is grounded on the idea that individual identities are dynamic and socially negotiated in interaction and discourse with language choices being true acts of identity Le Page and Tabouret Keller 1985 by means of which people s selves are performed and defined To offer wide yet accurate descriptions of how identities are variously conveyed linguistically this volume offers a varied approach to diversity by covering different fields of research from the investigation of ethnic minorities identities to the socio linguistic and cultural status of Scots to mention but two examples The book consists of nine selected papers dealing with professional cultural ethnic and social identities gender ideologies and national stereotypes built and negotiated in language practices and discourse In particular this work tackles a wide set of key topics the construction and legitimation of ESOL teachers identities in their community of practice multidimensional research on Italian immigrants distinctiveness the negotiation of self in bilingual families Scottish national belonging and attitudes towards the Scots language the correlation between sexism and gender categories and the development of a positive approach to diversity via enhanced critical awareness of culture bound stereotypes Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic, ... Selcer,2014-05-14 Features essays statistical data period photographs maps and documents The American Presidents From Polk to Hayes Robert A. Nowlan, Ph.D.,2016-01-31 American Presidents Polk to Hayes What They Did What They Said What Was Said About Them is the second book in a planned five volume series covering all the Presidents These 43 men so far have succeeded in some regards and failed in others as they strove to do the best they could in what is surely one of the most difficult jobs in the world Only they can truly appreciate what it takes to be the president Others can only speculate People feel strongly about U S Presidents Some they admire others they hate It is fair game to criticize a president's actions and policies However questioning their commitment to American ideals seems like hitting below the belt There are no willing villains Most people can find justification for their actions beliefs and prejudices Each president strove to do the best he could for the nation and its people This goal of the book is not to praise presidents nor is it to condemn them The subtitle of each of the five books in the series What They Did What They Said What Was Said About Them perfectly describes the approach adopted to tell their stories in a unique way meant to entertain as well as inform Readers are asked to make their own judgments of the presidencies based on more information than the semi myths they may recall History courses or what is preached in the many longstanding and despicable negative campaigning mudslinging and character assassination reports they hear from partisans One can find much to admire about each of the presidents and unfortunately much to deplore Soldiers are told that in giving salutes to officers is not honoring the individuals but rather their rank If there are presidents readers just feel they cannot salute hopefully they can salute the presidency A Revolt Against Liberalism A.A.M. van der Linden,2023-04-12 This is the first study to provide a comprehensive picture of the revolt brought about by American radical historians in the 1960s and 1970s With the turbulent sixties as a backdrop the work of radical luminaries like Eugene Genovese Herbert Gutman Staughton Lynd William Appleman Williams and Howard Zinn is discussed These historians made a significant contribution to present day notions about slavery working class history the New Deal the Cold War and a wealth of other subjects Their main target was American liberalism Radical criticism centered on the liberal concepts of the division of power and of the nature of man The acrimonious debate which ensued tore the historical profession apart Therefore most historians have stressed the disagreements between liberals and radicals Yet in this study it will be argued that in some respects the radicals were part and parcel of mainstream historiography though they presented a radical version of it

Spare the Kids Stacey Patton, 2017-03-21 A necessary challenge to the cultural tradition of corporeal punishment in Black homes and its connections to white supremacy Encourages positive nonviolent discipline for those rearing teaching and caring for children of color Why do so many African Americans have such a special attachment to whupping children Studies show that nearly 80 percent of Black parents see spanking popping pinching and beating as reasonable effective ways to teach respect and to protect black children from the streets incarceration encounters with racism or worse However the consequences of this widely accepted approach to child rearing are far reaching and seldom discussed Dr Stacey Patton s extensive research suggests that corporal punishment is a crucial factor in explaining why Black folks are subject to disproportionately higher rates of school suspensions and expulsions criminal prosecutions improper mental health diagnoses child abuse cases and foster care placements which too often funnel abused and traumatized children into the prison system Weaving together race religion history popular culture science policing psychology and personal testimonies Dr Patton connects what happens at home to what happens in the streets in a way that is thought provoking unforgettable and deeply sobering
