The 1798 Rebellion An Illustrated History:

The 1798 Rebellion Thomas Bartlett, 1998 Swept along by the rising tide of liberty that brought revolution to America and France in the late eighteenth century the 1798 Rebellion in Ireland gave birth to the idea of a new nation free of English rule The 1790 s saw the emergence of the United Irishmen the abortive French landing of 1796 on the Irish coast and the brutal government repression that followed The 1798 Rebellion itself lay at the heart of the story It included revolts in Leinster and east Ulster and a small French landing in Connacht that was too little too late Deep rooted divisions in Irish society would feed the bloody struggle and reappear even more prominently than before IN the end 20 000 people perished in Ireland s first attempt at independence In 1798 Rebellion tells the heroic and tragic story of theis fateful year in Irish history On the two hundredth anniversary of the rising the authors reexamine these tumultuous events in the context of their times and in light of things to come The Irish Enlightenment Michael Brown, 2016-05-02 Chapter 7 A Culture of Trust Chapter 8 Fracturing the Irish Enlightenment Chapter 9 An Enlightened Civil War Conclusion Ireland s Missing Modernity Notes Acknowledgements Index Robert Burns and Transatlantic Culture Sharon Alker, Leith Davis, 2016-04-08 While recent scholarship has usefully positioned Burns within the context of British Romanticism as a spokesperson of Scottish national identity Robert Burns and Transatlantic Culture considers Burns s impact in the United States Canada and South America where he has served variously as a site of cultural memory and of creative negotiation Ambitious in its scope the volume is divided into five sections that explore transatlantic concerns in Burns s own work Burns s early publication in North America Burns s reception in the Americas Burns s creation as a site of cultural memory and extra literary remediations of Burns including contemporary digital representations By tracing the transatlantic modulations of the poet and songwriter and his works Robert Burns and Transatlantic Culture sheds new light on the circuits connecting Scotland and Britain with the evolving cultures of the Americas from the late eighteenth century to the present Dynamics of Deep Time and Deep Place Laura Doyle, Simon Gikandi, Mwangi wa Gĩthĩnji, 2025-04-10 Dynamics of Deep Time and Deep Place comprises one volume in an unprecedented three volume set collectively subtitled Decolonial Reconstellations Together with Volume Two Dissolving Master Narratives and Volume Three Reconceiving Identities in Political Economy it gathers thinkers from across world regions and disciplines who reconfigure critical global thought Collaboratively conceived the volumes are founded on the observation that we cannot fully uproot the epistemological material violence of coercive systems nor fully re imagine more ethical visions of planetary community without shared attention to the deeper histories of place and peoples that shape the present Accordingly the volumes gather social scientists and humanists Indigenous and non Indigenous scholars and intersectional and materialist thinkers who reconceptualize longue dur e history and its afterlives They engage in the dual project to dismantle eurocentric colonial androcentric frameworks and to make visible the legacies of care and creative world making that have sustained human communities Uncovering pasts that are as complex and dynamic as the present the contributors brilliantly transform notions of temporality relationability polity conjuncture resistance and experimentation within histories of struggle and alliance They richly decolonize political imaginaries The co editors introductions articulate fresh frameworks of deep place and deep time freed from eurocentric modernity paradigms indicating pathways toward decolonial collaboration and institutional change Decolonial Reconstellations offers invaluable resources for researchers and teachers in decolonial postcolonial anti colonial and Indigenous studies and will also strongly appeal to feminist anti racist Marxist and critical theory scholars across disciplines Exodus from the Alamo Phillip Thomas Tucker,2020-01-10 The award winning historian provides a provocative new analysis of the Battle of the Alamo including new information on the fate of Davy Crockett Contrary to legend we now know that the defenders of the Alamo during the Texan Revolution died in a merciless predawn attack by Mexican soldiers With extensive research into recently discovered Mexican accounts as well as forensic evidence historian Phillip Tucker sheds new light on the famous battle contending that the traditional myth is even more off base than we thought In a startling revelation Tucker uncovers that the primary fights took place on the plain outside the fort While a number of the Alamo s defenders hung on inside most died while attempting to escape Capt Dickinson with cannon atop the chapel fired repeatedly into the throng of enemy cavalry until he was finally cut down The controversy surrounding Davy Crockett still remains though the recently authenticated diary of the Mexican Col Jos Enrique de la Pe a offers evidence that he surrendered Notoriously Mexican Pres Gen Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna burned the bodies of the Texans who had dared stand against him As this book proves in thorough detail the funeral pyres were well outside the fort that is where the two separate groups of escapees fell on the plain rather than in the Alamo itself The Athenaeum,1865 Catalogue of the Library of the Parliament of Ontario Anonymous,2024-03-09 Reprint of the original first published in 1875 Catalogue of the California State Library California State Library,1866 The Impact of the Domestic Linen Industry in Ulster W. H. Crawford,2005 The domestic linen industry left an indelible imprint on Ulster history It was introduced by colonists from the north of England in the 17th century before the arrival of the Huguenots and encouraged by the landlords to improve their rentals Earnings from raising flax spinning yarn and weaving cloth provided farming families with regular incomes that enabled them to lease small farms and improve marginal land Continual improvements by Ulster bleachers in the finishing of linens secured for them control of the industry focussing its development Exports to Britain first through Dublin and then direct to Liverpool and London created a merchant class and underpinned the development of Belfast and the provincial market towns By 1800 Ulster was reckoned to be the most prosperous province in Ireland It was also the most densely peopled with a population of two million in 1821 almost equal to that of Scotland The stirring incidents of Irish history Irish history,1885 The Eternal Paddy Michael de Nie,2004-07 In The Eternal Paddy Michael de Nie examines anti Irish prejudice Anglo Irish relations and the construction of Irish and British identities in nineteenth century Britain This book provides a new more inclusive approach to the study of Irish identity as perceived by Britons and demonstrates that ideas of race were inextricably connected with class concerns and religious prejudice in popular views of both peoples De Nie suggests that while traditional anti Irish stereotypes were fundamental to British views of Ireland equally important were a collection of sympathetic discourses and a self awareness of British prejudice In the pages of the British newspaper press this dialogue created a deep ambivalence about the Irish people an ambivalence that allowed most Britons to assume that the root of Ireland s difficulties lay in its Irishness Drawing on more than ninety newspapers published in England Scotland and Wales The Eternal Paddy offers the first major detailed analysis of British press coverage of Ireland over the course of the nineteenth century This book traces the evolution of popular understandings and proposed solutions to the Irish question focusing particularly on the interrelationship between the press the public and the politicians The work also engages with ongoing studies of imperialism and British identity exploring the role of Catholic Ireland in British perceptions of their own identity and their empire
