Frederick Cooper, Ann Laura Stoler

The Age Of Imperialism 11 2 Case Study:

American Foreign Relations Reconsidered Gordon Martel, 2002-11-01 This major new textbook brings together twelve of the leading scholars of U S foreign relations Each contributor provides a clear concise summary of an important period or theme in US diplomatic and strategic affairs since the Spanish American War Michael Hunt and Joan Hoff provide an overview of the traditions behind US policy and a preview of things to come Together the contributors offer a succinct explanation of the controversies and questions that historians have grappled with throughout the twentieth century Students will find these essays a reliable and useful guide to the various schools of thought which have emerged Although each of the scholars is well known for their detailed and original work these essays are new and have been specially commissioned for this book The articles follow the chronological development of the emergence of the United States as a world power but special themes such as the American policy process economic interests relations with the Third World and the dynamics of the nuclear arms race have been singled out for separate treatment American Foreign Relations Reconsidered 1890 1993 represents essential reading for upper level undergraduates studying modern American history The book has been designed and written exclusively to meet the needs of students either as a major course text or as a set of supplementary readings to support other texts

Coolies of the Empire Ashutosh Kumar, 2017-09-15 This book unfolds the story of the indenture system within the British Empire with India as the mother country of coolies

Case Studies on Modern European Economy Tibor Iván Berend, 2013 The last two centuries have been the scene of dramatic change throughout Europe And one of the main causes of these tremendous and spectacular changes was the economy These transformations were achieved by people scientists and political thinkers inventors and entrepreneurs educators skilled and educated workers Who not only invented machines and computers but were able to renew economic and political systems This volume therefore presents a new approach to the period by looking at case studies to understand how these changes came about and the impact they had on modern Europe Ivan Berend presents the spectacular history of modern European economy as a chain of small events actions and the ideas of individuals as the influence of institutions and bold entrepreneurs The essays are grouped into six chapters and discuss the power of entrepreneurship the power of institutions economic regimes and the permanent renewal of capitalism the power of ideas and inventions pioneering companies from the rise of industrial cities to post industrial suburbanization bubbles great depressions and economic cycles All of the single episodes and personal stories offer a cross section of the complex and interrelated history of modern Europe Case Studies on Modern European Economy will be essential reading for students of economic and modern European history

Tensions of Empire Frederick Cooper, Ann Laura Stoler, 1997-02-06 Starting with the premise that Europe was made by its imperial projects as much as colonial encounters were shaped by events and conflicts in Europe the contributors to Tensions of Empire investigate metropolitan colonial relationships from a new perspective The fifteen essays demonstrate various ways in which civilizing missions in both metropolis and colony provided new sites for clarifying a bourgeois order Focusing on the eighteenth nineteenth and early twentieth centuries they show how new definitions of modernity and welfare were developed and how new discourses and practices of inclusion and exclusion were contested and worked out The contributors argue that colonial studies can no longer be confined to the units of analysis on which it once relied instead of being the study of the colonized it must account for the shifting political terrain on which the very categories of colonized and colonizer have been shaped and patterned at different times Heritage-Making in Hong Kong Through Culture and Religion Trevor Sofield, Lawal Mohammed

Marafa, Fung Mei Sarah Li, Kwo Fung Shek, 2024-08-30 This book centres on religious heritage making where religion as a rich and diverse manifestation of culture and community empowerment lead to the transformation of place Fusing heritage and religion in the novel multidisciplinary concept heri ligion the authors illuminate the dynamics of change inherent in religious oriented heritage making Grounded in empirical evidence this rich concept integrates religious tourism heritage tourism and community based empowerment for sustainable development Applying this unique concept to the once abandoned Hakka village of Yim Tin Tsai the authors analyse the evolving paths of the island from its Hakka origins to a Christian pilgrimage site and more recently to a UNESCO cultural heritage site and thriving tourist destination The authors foreground the important role of the scattered community as a key agent of change in facilitating a sustainable environment of Hong Kong s only salt producing place today A dynamic example of community development and empowerment founded upon religious cultural industrial and natural heritage this book uniquely contributes to tourism and heritage studies human geography cultural sociology Hakka studies Asian studies and anthropology of religion Evolutions of Capitalism Catherine

Casson, Philipp Robinson Rössner, 2022-04-05 Covering times places and topics that have often been overlooked in the existing economic history literature this collection charts the most comprehensive chronology of capitalism to date The British Military Revolution of the 19th Century Daniel R. LeClair, 2019-10-31 From the Crimean War through the Second Boer War the British Empire sought to solve the Great Gun Question to harness improvements to ordnance small arms explosives and mechanization made possible by the Industrial Revolution The British public played a surprising but overlooked role offering myriad suggestions for improvements to the civilian led War Office Meanwhile politicians and army leaders argued over control of the country s ground forces in a decades long struggle that did not end until reforms of 1904 put the military under the Secretary of State for War Following the debate in the press voters put pressure on both Parliament and the War Office to modernize ordnance and military administration The Great Gun Question was as much about weaponry as about who ultimately controlled military power Drawing on ordnance committee records and contemporary news reports this book fills a gap in the history of British military technology and army modernization prior to World War I Cumulated Index

Medicus, 1989 African Sociology Bernard Magubane, 2000 The sociological and political writings of Bernard Makhosezwe Magubane on African political history political economy and political philosophy constitute a vital portion of a monumental legacy to later generations by an African intellectual who came to maturity through an historical consciousness that emerged during the 1960s This was a period characterized by the radical contentious philosophies of history African marxism African nationalism and the reactionary ideologies aligned with imperialism and colonialism The essays of Bernard Makhosezwe Magubane stand at a fascinating intersection with the intellectual systems of Frantz Fanon H I E Dhlomo Ngugi wa Thiong o and Amilcar Cabral They are first and foremost what Cabral and Fanon were clamoring for an instrumentarium of the construction of a progressive African ideology or African ideologies What enabled them to realize this remarkable breakthrough is that they are a continuation of the revolutionary thought of Fanon and Cabral Magubane was among the first African academic scholars to have seen the historical significance of Fanon and Cabral respectively in the mid 1960s and in the early 1970s Written in exile during the exile period in South African intellectual and cultural history these essays until recently were not easily historically locatable within the genealogical structure of South African intellectual traditions Undoubtedly this had been due to the political philosophy of apartheid and its ideological manifestations

Colonialism & Modernity Paul Gillen, Devleena Ghosh, 2007 Few books tell such a broad global history using an interdisciplinary approach that blends historical and cultural scholarship Author based at UTS

Populism and Feminism in Iran Haideh Moghissi, 2016-07-27 Women presented the first effective challenge to the Islamic regime and the clerical authority in post revolutionary Iran Women s activism in support of their legal rights and personal freedom however did not develop into a strong movement against the rising fundamentalism The Iranian socialists did not support women s autonomous organizations The convergence of the Left s populism with Islamic populism and the influence of the Iranian Shiite political culture that promotes male authority and female submission could not reconcile with women s claims to individual rights choice and personal freedom and their struggle for autonomy and self determination in private or public life

The End of the Museum Kevin Coffee, 2025-08-08 This provocative book challenges frequently voiced assertions regarding museums as necessary and valued modern institutions It raises fundamental existential questions about contemporary museums as products of the modern colonial world order Drawing on practical examples of collecting and exhibiting theoretical research and critique from diverse countries across the globe including Chile India Korea the Netherlands Nigeria Palestine Portugal Sri Lanka and the United States this book moves beyond the conventional Eurocentric museological framework This book synthesizes contemporary critiques of museums while arguing that societies need the sociocultural examinations that museums are capable of facilitating and that radical transformations of the museum are fraught with difficulty but also possible and necessary Ultimately Coffee argues that museums can only be future orientated if they are transformed into agents of social justice and inclusion divestors of illicit collections and proponents of a liberatory ethic opposing neo colonialism in all of its forms During that transformative process as this book demonstrates museum practice and museum theory must also be transformed The End of the Museum Culture Colonialism and Liberation will appeal to students researchers and practitioners interested in a critical examination of museum work and theory Dragon Gate Kangmin Zeng,1999-01-01 This text examines the enormous pressure placed on University students in Japan Korea and Taiwan which have led to the rapid expansion of the cramming industry and to a growing number of students looking to religion and spirituality for guidance The book examines the issue of the rise in youth suicides and the dramatic rise in levels of cheating both raising fundamental questions about the education system in the late 1990s A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles ,1893 Volunteer Tourism Jim Butcher,Peter Smith,2015-06-05 Just a generation ago the notion that holidays should be invested with ethical and political significance would have sounded odd Today it is part of the lifestyle political landscape Volunteer tourism is indicative of the growth of lifestyle strategies intended to exhibit care and responsibility towards others less fortunate strategies aligned closely with developing one s ethical identity and sense of global responsibility It sits alongside telethons pay per click Fair Trade and ethical consumption generally as a way to make a difference Volunteer tourism involves a personal mission to address the political question of development It draws upon the private virtues of care and responsibility and disavows political narratives beyond this Critics argue that this leaves the volunteers as unwitting carriers of damaging neoliberal or postcolonial assumptions whilst advocates see it as offering creative and practical ways to build a new ethical politics By contrast this volume analyses volunteer tourism as indicative of a retreat from public politics into the realm of private experience and as an expression of diminished political and moral agency This thought provoking book draws on development political and sociological theory and is essential reading for students researchers and academics interested in the phenomenon of volunteer tourism and the politics of lifestyle that it represents
