The Apocalypse Trigger:

A History of the Apocalypse Catalin Negru, 2023-01-20 Religion For thousands of years this thing has dictated which people should live and which people should die what shape our buildings should have or what colors our garments should contain what food people should eat or what words people should speak If religion is the opium of the masses then beliefs about the end of the world are like overdoses People touched by such beliefs no longer rely on a hidden personal and intimate god contemplated upon from the safe distance of the beating human heart They live with the promise of divine intervention at a grand scale on the current coordinates of space and time This can be an exceptional motivator and a game changer in terms of civil obedience both at an individual and collective level In the name of an immediate and palpable deity people can commit shocking cruelties However such belief can also account for some of the most exceptional social developments in human history The Postmillennial Vampire Susan Chaplin, 2017-01-23 This book explores the idea that while we see the vampire as a hero of romance or as a member of an oppressed minority struggling to fit in and acquire legal recognition the vampire has in many ways changed beyond recognition over recent decades due to radically shifting formations of the sacred in contemporary culture The figure of the vampire has captured the popular imagination to an unprecedented extent since the turn of the millennium The philosopher Ren Girard associates the sacred with a communal violence that sacred ritual controls and contains As traditional formations of the sacred fragment the vampire comes to embody and enact this sacred violence through complex blood bonds that relate the vampire to the human in wholly new Effing the Ineffable Wesley J. Wildman, 2018-10-01 A meditation on how religious language ways in the new millennium tries to limn the liminal conceive the inconceivable speak the unspeakable and say the unsayable In Effing the Ineffable Wesley J Wildman confronts the human obsession with ultimate reality and our desire to conceive and speak of this reality through religious language despite the seeming impossibility of doing so Each chapter is a meditative essay on an aspect of life that for most people is fraught with special spiritual significance dreaming suffering creating slipping balancing eclipsing loneliness intensity and bliss These moments can inspire religious questioning and commitment and in extreme situations drive us in search of ways to express what matters most to us Drawing upon American pragmatist Anglo American analytic and Continental traditions of philosophical theology Wildman shows how through direct description religious symbolism and phenomenological experience the language games of religion become a means to attempt and in some sense to accomplish this task This is a fine example of Wildman's way of doing philosophy of religion It demonstrates the importance if not necessity of religious philosophers working comparatively and also the benefits of multidisciplinary inquiry Stephen Dawson Lynchburg College The Fight for Jerusalem Dore Gold, 2009-08-24 A former Israeli ambassador to the United Nations argues against a redivision of Jerusalem stating that it will only enflame radical Islamists and maintains that an awareness of biblical history can protect the city for worshippers of all faiths Godsent Richard Burton, 2012-11-13 Kate Skylar is an ordinary seventeen year old with an extraordinary destiny A virgin Kate suddenly finds herself pregnant with what she believes is the Son of God But the Catholic Church is convinced Kate is carrying the Antichrist and assisted by an artificial intelligence known as Grand Inquisitor will stop at nothing to kill Ethan her son Ethan's only protection is Conversatio a secret organization dedicated to the Second Coming which may have its own dark agenda As Ethan grows up in anonymity ignorant of his true identity and not knowing whom to trust he must come to terms with his miraculous abilities and make a fateful choice that will determine the future of all mankind And for Kate an equally difficult struggle looms as well as a mother's devastating choice Godsent is a wild religious thriller a page turner that keeps you guessing until the very last page Burton in his fiction debut crafts a tightly wound narrative with a heart pounding plot and emotional resonance that will ring true to anyone with children of their own all while the fate of humanity hangs in the balance DAWN OF THE APOCALYPSE Edgar Allan Poe, William Hope Hodgson, Jack London, Ernest Bramah, Jonathan Swift, Cleveland Moffett, Anthony Trollope, Richard Jefferies, William Dean Howells, Ayn Rand, Samuel Butler, Milo Hastings, Edward Bellamy, Fritz Leiber, Irving E.
