Jenkins,2018-02-01 Leadership as a discipline leadership education as a field and leadership educator as a profession are still in their infancy and rapidly evolving As professionals in higher education we are constantly asked to provide opportunities for students to learn leadership whether that is inside or outside of the classroom However very little if any professional development occurs in how to create such learning opportunities This book provides resources for leadership educators in three sections The first section sets the stage for leadership education and the professional work of leadership educators culminating with a variety of professional development resources for leadership educators The second section introduces a leadership learning framework provides characteristics and examples of strong leadership programs and assessment practices and describes the transformative practice of leadership education The third and final section offers specific instructional and assessment strategies ranging from discussion case study and reflection to team based and service learning to self assessments role play simulation and games to fulfill learning outcomes

Leadership in Nursing: Experiences from the European Nordic Countries Thóra B. Hafsteinsdóttir,Helga Jónsdóttir,Marit Kirkevold,Helena Leino-Kilpi,Kirsten Lomborg,Ingaliil Rahm Hallberg,2019-04-30 This book explores the leading role played by nursing science in the European Nordic countries Recognized leaders in nursing research from Denmark Finland Iceland Norway and Sweden reflect on the leadership of nurses the societal developments and the state of nursing science in their country and the successes and remaining challenges nurses are facing. The book highlights representative leadership projects focusing on e.g. evidenced based clinical practice education and research that have impacted patient and healthcare outcomes in each country. The book shows how nursing as a scientific discipline has been developing rapidly in these five Nordic countries. They have more nurses per capita than other countries (OECD 2016) and healthcare is provided to all citizens. Moreover, nursing qualification in the Nordic countries was based on university education early on and there are more professors of nursing than in other countries. Accordingly, this book on Leadership in nursing within the Nordic countries shares essential and pioneering expertise that will benefit nurses and nurse scientists around the globe.
