

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in regards to a party that took place in this neighborhood last night. The party was scheduled to end at 10:00pm. However, many people did not leave at this time. There were people partying in the streets until three or four am. They were very loud and most of them were drinking a lot of alcohol.

When I left for work, many of the people who partied late were sleeping in the streets or on the doorsteps. They had made a huge mess of the street. There was a lot of vomit everywhere. At the same time, small children were coming outside to play. This was a giant health hazard.

I am not against people having fun, or even block parties. I think they are a good way for communities to come together and for people to meet their neighbors. But I hope in the future that you will think more about the repercussions of having a party allowing alcohol.

Thank you,
Mr. James Monroe
