Transformation of Archives and Heritage Education in Post-apartheid South Africa Geraldine Frieslaar,Olusegun Morakinyo,2023-06-10 Although there have been significant strides to transform the demographics of archive and museum personnel develop new museums and heritage institutions and heritage training initiatives in post apartheid South Africa the Eurocentric model of the archive museum and heritage sector has largely remained intact Despite the euphoria around the transformation of heritage in the beginnings of post apartheid South Africa it can be argued that the transformation of heritage institutions has been superficial and cosmetic with the ideological foundation of the colonial archive and museum as well as Eurocentric modalities of heritage education remaining solid largely unmoved and under continuing challenge This is the thrust of this book which reflects on the transformation of archives and museum and heritage education in South Africa and argues for meaningful transformation of the sector through a decolonisation from its Eurocentric mooring

I Have Come a Long Way John W. de Gruchy,2016-03-18 If my life and experience is of some interest it is chiefly so because I have lived through interesting times in an interesting country traveled to many interesting places and been accompanied along the way by interesting folk John de Gruchy is a renowned South African theologian and an inspiration to many An expert on the work of the anti Nazi theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer De Gruchy is also a local struggle icon in his own right In this book we trace his story from his Viking ancestry via a seafaring grandfather and illegitimate grandmother to where he became an ecumenical activist for the South African Council of Churches and up to the present We journey through a South Africa in transition and a rapidly changing global society Along the way we meet varied often controversial people like Albert Luthuli

Jaap Durand P W Botha and Constand Viljoen With a foreword by his friend Desmond Tutu this is the tale of an extraordinary life lived to the full

Philosophical Inquiry with Children Gilbert Burgh,Simone Thornton,2018-12-07 Philosophy in schools in Australia dates back to the 1980s and is rooted in the Philosophy for Children curriculum and pedagogy Seeing potential for educational change Australian advocates were quick to develop new classroom resources and innovative programs that have proved influential in educational practice throughout Australia and internationally Behind their contributions lie key philosophical and educational discussions and controversies which have shaped attempts to introduce philosophy in schools and embed it in state and national curricula Drawing together a wide range of eminent scholars and practitioners in the field of educational philosophy this anthology the first of its kind provides not only a historical narrative but an opportunity to reflect on the insights and experiences of the authors that have made history The collection is divided into three parts The overarching theme of Part I is the early years of Philosophy for Children in Australia and how they informed the course that the philosophy in schools movement would take Part II focuses on the events and debates surrounding the development and production of new materials including arguments for and against the suitability of the original Philosophy for Children curriculum In Part III key developments relating to teaching philosophy in schools are analysed This collection of diverse views critical appraisals and different perspectives of historical currents is intended to stimulate thought provoking questions about theory and practice and to increase general awareness both nationally and internationally of the maturation of philosophy in schools in Australia It is also intended to encourage readers to identify emerging ideas and develop strategies for their implementation

Women and Photography in Apartheid South Africa Marie Meyerding, 2025-04-29 Tracing the lives and works of five women in four case studies author Marie Meyerding examines the representation of women in the field of photography in South Africa in the second half of the twentieth century All of them are critically understudied with no existing scholarship dedicated exclusively to their photographic contributions Focusing on the representation of women on two different levels as agents behind the camera and as subjects in photographs it showcases women photographers portraying their female contemporaries and analyses to what extent they adhered to or subverted common forms of gender representation In recuperating their forgotten archives the book argues that none of these women are marginal figures but rather that each of them played a leading role in the field of photography in their own time The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history history of photography gender studies intersectionality and African studies

An African Pentecostal Hermeneutics Marius Nel, 2018-12-27 The face of African Christianity is becoming Pentecostal African Pentecostalism is a diverse movement but its collective interest in baptism in the Spirit and the result of Pentecost in daily living binds it together Pentecostals read the Bible with the expectation that the Spirit who inspired the authors will again inspire them to hear it as God s word They emphasize the experiential at times at the cost of proper doctrine and practice This book sketches an African hermeneutic that provides guidance to a diverse movement with many faces and serves as corrective for doctrine and practice in the face of some excesses and abuses especially in some parts of the neo Pentecostal movement African Pentecostalism s contribution to the hermeneutical debate is described before three points are discussed that define it the centrality of the Holy Spirit in reading the Bible the eschatological lens that Pentecostals use when they read the Bible and the faith community as normative for the interpretation of the Bible
