Library of Congress. Library of Congress Office, Nairobi, Kenya, 2001 Media System and News Selections in Namibia Andreas Rothe, 2010 What is the status quo of the Namibian media system What radio and TV stations what newspapers and magazines compete for the attention of the Namibian citizen What is the situation regarding press freedom and the formal education prospective journalists receive How do Namibian journalists select news Is the so far European focused News Value Theory a sensible explanatory approach for that How does news selection differ from Namibia to Germany from private to state media in Namibia from print to broadcasting These are some of the central issues author Andreas Rothe addresses in this English language version of his diploma thesis The Wiley Handbook of Diversity in Special Education Marie Tejero

Hughes, Elizabeth Talbott, 2017-04-17 The Wiley Handbook of Diversity in Special Education is a state of the art reference showcasing cutting edge special education research with a focus on children and youth with disabilities from diverse cultural ethnic linguistic and economic backgrounds Cutting edge special education research focusing on children and youth with disabilities from diverse cultural ethnic linguistic and economic backgrounds An authoritative contribution to the field this work charts a new path to effective interventions and sets an agenda for future research Addresses disabilities from an international perspective A Tale of Three Countries Piet Naudé, Nico Cloete, 2003 Decolonisation of Materialities or Materialisation of (Re-)Colonisation Nhemachena, Artwell, Kangira, Jairos, 2017-11-28 Contemporary scholarly discourses about decolonising materialities are taking two noticeable trajectories the first trajectory privileges establishing connections relationships and associations between human beings and nature The second trajectory privileges restoration restitution reparations for colonial dispossessions lootings and disinheritance While the first trajectory presupposes that colonialism was merely about separation alienation and disconnections between human beings and nature the second trajectory stresses the colonialists dispossession disinheritance and privations of Africans Drawing on contemporary discourses about materialities in relation to semiotics non representationalism rhetoric ecocriticism territorialisation deterritorialisation and reterritorialisation translation animism science and technology studies this book teases out the intellectually rutted terrain of African materialities It argues that in a world of increasing impoverishment the significance of materialities cannot be overemphasised more so for the continent of Africa where impoverishment materialises in the midst of resource opulence The book is a pacesetter in no holds barred interrogation of African materialities

Teacher Education in Diverse Settings Larry Prochner,Ailie Cleghorn,Anna Kirova,Christine Massing,2016-09-27 Teacher Education in Diverse Settings presents a study of initial educator preparation in three social contexts a training program for immigrant child care educators in Canada a pre and lower primary specialization in a teacher education program in Namibia and a partnership between the Misak indigenous communities in Colombia and the University of Cauca to deliver courses for educators within their communities In each setting the book explores the relationships between indigenous ways of thinking and western discourse in reference to the preparation of educators whether they be teachers community leaders or newly arrived immigrants in Canada In each case the authors focus is on the tensions between the local understandings and global ideas and the creation of space for diverse but intersecting worldviews The book s goal is to investigate ways that teacher educators parents and communities can better prepare children for the realities of schooling while preserving the integrity of local norms and values through educator preparation programs

Global Jurisprudential Apartheid in the Twenty-First Century Howard Tafara Chitimira,Artwell Nhemachena,Tapiwa Victor Warikandwa,2021-09-27 In Global Jurisprudential Apartheid in the Twenty First Century Universalism and Particularism in International Law the contributors argue that the world is witnessing the formation of a global jurisprudential apartheid despite the promotion of democracy equality human rights and humanitarianism Examining organisations such as international criminal courts the World Trade Organisation the United Nations Security Council the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank the contributors unpack the challenges of global jurisprudential apartheid In particular they analyse the ways in which these organizations hold and contribute to the increasing inequalities between the Global North and the Global South Ultimately Global Jurisprudential Apartheid in the Twenty First Century shows that globalisation is a variant of the apartheid era particularism and not universalism working to advantage the Global North while disadvantaging the Global South under the pretense of humanitarianism
