

"Oh! certainly," cried his faithful assistant, "no one can be really esteemed accomplished who does not greatly surpass what is usually met with. A woman must have a thorough knowledge of music, singing, drawing, dancing, and the modern languages, to deserve the word; and besides all this, she must possess a certain something in her air and manner of walking, the tone of her voice, her address and expressions, or the word will be but half-deserved."

"All this she must possess," added Darcy, "and to all this she must yet add something more substantial, in the improvement of her mind by extensive reading."

"I am no longer surprised at your knowing only six accomplished women. I rather wonder now at your knowing any."

"Are you so severe upon your own sex as to doubt the possibility of all this?"

Scott, 2016-10-04 Over recent decades International Relations scholars have investigated norm dynamics processes at some length with the norm entrepreneur concept having become a common reference point in the literature The focus on norm entrepreneurs has however resulted in a bias towards investigating the agents and processes of successful normative change This book challenges this inherent bias by explicitly focusing on those who resist normative change norm antipreneurs The utility of the norm antipreneur concept is explored through a series of case studies encompassing a range of issue areas and contributed by a mix of well known and emergent scholars of norm dynamics In examining the complexity of norm resistance particular attention is paid to the nature and intent of the actors involved in norm contestation the sites and processes of resistance the strategies and tactics antipreneurs deploy to defend the values and interests they perceive to be threatened by the entrepreneurs and whether it is the entrepreneurs or the antipreneurs who enjoy greater inherent advantages This text will therefore be of interest to scholars and students of International Relations International Law Political Science Sociology and History Farley's Reference-directory of the Booksellers, Stationers and Printers in the United States and Canada ,1886 Resources in education ,1986-07 Bulletin of Books in the Various Departments of Literature and Science Added to the Public Library of Cincinnati During the Year... Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County, 1895 EPA Publications Bibliography ,1977 Wetland Science B. Anjan Kumar Prusty, Rachna Chandra, P. A. Azeez, 2017-04-21 This book is an attempt to acknowledge the discipline wetland science and to consolidate research findings reviews and synthesis articles on different aspects of the wetlands in South Asia The book presents 30 chapters by an international mix of experts in the field who highlight and discuss diverse issues concerning wetlands in South Asia as case studies The chapters are divided into different themes that represent broad issues of concern in a systematic manner keeping in mind students researchers and general readers at large The book introduces readers to the basics and theory of wetland science supplemented by case studies and examples from the region It also offers a valuable resource for graduate students and researchers in allied fields such as environmental studies limnology wildlife biology aquatic biology marine biology and landscape ecology To date the interdisciplinary field wetland science is still rarely treated as a distinct discipline in its own right Further courses on wetland science aren't taught at any of the world's most prestigious universities instead the topics falling under this discipline are generally handled under the disciplines ecology or under the extremely broad heading of environmental studies It is high time that Wetland Science be acknowledged as an interdisciplinary sub discipline which calls for an attempt to consolidate its various subtopics and present them comprehensively Thus this book also serves as a reference base on wetlands and facilitates further discussions on specific issues involved in safeguarding a sustainable future for the wetland habitats of this region American Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular, 1868 Energy Research Abstracts, 1990
