book     Teaching Performance Practices in Remote and Hybrid Spaces Jeanmarie Higgins, Elisha Clark Halpin, 2022-06-16
This collection of insightful essays gives teachers perspectives on the role of space and presence in teaching performance. It explores how the demand for remote teaching can be met while at the same time successfully educating and working compassionately in this most live of disciplines. Teaching Performance Practices in Remote and Hybrid Spaces reframes prevailing ideas about pedagogy in dance, theatre and somatics and applies them to teaching in face to face, hybrid and remote situations. Case studies from instructors and professors provide essential practical suggestions for remotely teaching a vast range of studio courses including tap, dance, theatre, design, movement, script analysis and acting, rendering this book an invaluable resource. The challenges that teachers are facing in the early twenty first century are addressed throughout, helping readers to navigate these unprecedented circumstances whilst delivering lessons, guiding workshops, rehearsing or even staging performances. This book is invaluable for dance and theatre teachers or leaders who work in the performing arts and related disciplines. It is also ideal for any professionals who need research based solutions for teaching performance online.
