Holy Trap Abid Khan, 2025-06-05 Holy Trap A Real Story About Faith Fear and Freedom is a powerful and deeply personal account of one young man's journey through the complex world of modern Islam where faith can offer healing but also become a trap Born into a modest tailoring family in Bangalore Bid is a quiet creative boy with dreams that defy his background He wants to become a fashion designer a goal considered frivolous by many around him As he tries to balance his artistic aspirations with the expectations of family religion and survival Bid begins searching for deeper meaning What starts as a sincere quest for spiritual understanding slowly evolves into a descent through the layered world of Islamic ideologies From the structured teachings of Tablighi Jamaat to the mysticism of Sufi groups from the emotional pull of street preachers to the radical voices echoing online Bid is pulled in every direction He gives up his creative dreams isolates himself from friends and family and commits to a stricter version of Islam believing he's found his higher purpose But beneath his growing religiosity is a storm of guilt confusion and inner conflict The tragic illness and death of his mother shatters his emotional world leaving him vulnerable to more extreme ideologies In his grief and isolation Bid begins to lose sight of reality drawn toward radical voices that promise justice purity and salvation Eventually national authorities arrest him under suspicion of radical links In prison stripped of identity and ideology Bid begins a painful process of self examination Alone with his thoughts he slowly peels back the layers of belief trauma and conditioning that led him down such a dangerous path What emerges is not just a story of survival but of awakening This is not a story about terrorism It is a story about how ordinary people especially vulnerable sensitive young minds can be swept up in extreme belief systems It's about how emotional repression poverty grief and misplaced faith can spiral into psychological collapse And it's about how one person even after losing everything can still choose life Holy Trap explores The psychological roots of extremism in real lives The struggles of modern Muslim youth with identity shame and purpose The reality of radicalization not as headlines but as personal history The emotional impact of religious rigidity family pressure and loss And the redemptive power of truth reflection and freedom From Bangalore s crowded alleys to distant spiritual enclaves and from the trauma of loss to the silence of a prison cell Bid s story is one of heartbreak courage and transformation If you ve ever wondered how radicalization happens how people can be pulled into dangerous ideologies or how they can come back to themselves this book is for you You won t just read his story You will feel it And by the end you too may find yourself saying I choose truth I choose peace I choose to live Austenistan Laaleen Sukhera,2017-12-06 Heiress Kamila Mughal is humiliated when her brother s best friend snubs her to marry a social climbing nobody from Islamabad Roya discovers her fianc has been cheating on her and ends up on a blind date on her wedding day Beautiful young widow Begum Saira Qadir has mourned her husband but is she finally ready to start following her own desires Inspired by Jane Austen and set in contemporary Pakistan Austenistan is a collection of seven stories romantic uplifting witty and heartbreaking by turn which pay homage to the world s favourite author in their own uniquely local way
