knowledge to shape a better world for everyone Mindful Listening Instruction in the Elementary Classroom: Authentic Strategies Using Picturebooks Fortune, Donna Jessie, Barksdale, Mary Alice, 2023-09-18 In today's academic environment one essential skill that is often overlooked is active listening. While educators dedicate substantial time to teaching reading, writing, and speaking, listening skills remain a marginalized aspect of education. This negligence leaves students ill-prepared for the demands of the modern world and results in billions of dollars being spent by companies to train their employees in effective listening. The gap between the need for proficient listeners and the scarcity of resources to nurture this skill is harming or at least significantly delaying the potential of these students. Mindful Listening Instruction in the Elementary Classroom: Authentic Strategies Using Picturebooks is the solution we've all been waiting for. Academic scholars are deeply committed to improving education and they have recognized the urgency of addressing this pervasive issue. This book offers a transformative solution by advocating for the integration of listening skill instruction into elementary classrooms using the engaging medium of picture books. This book is a roadmap to a brighter future for our students and society. By addressing the problem of neglected listening skills and offering a compelling solution, this book equips educators, academics, and anyone invested in education with the tools to bridge the gap between the demand for proficient listeners and the current educational landscape's shortcomings.

Student Perspectives on Assessment Dennis M. McInerney,Gregory Arief D. Liem,Gavin T. L. Brown,2009-12-01 Assessment for learning is meant to engage motivate and enable students to do better in their learning However how students themselves perceive assessments both high stakes qualifications and low stakes monitoring is not well understood This volume collects research studies from Europe North and South America Asia and New Zealand that have deliberately focused on how students in primary secondary and tertiary education conceive of experience understand and evaluate assessments Assessment for learning has assumed that formative assessments and classroom practices would be an unqualified success in terms of student learning outcomes Making use of a variety of qualitatively interpreted focus groups observations and interviews and factor analytic survey methods the studies collected in this volume raise doubts as to the validity of this formulation We commend this volume to readers hoping to stimulate their own thinking and research in the area of student assessment We believe the chapters will challenge researchers policy makers teacher educators and instructors as to how assessment for learning can be implemented Curriculum-based Assessment Carroll J. Jones, 2008

Although curriculum based assessment CBA has been on the horizon for a number of years there has been a need for a practical classroom based approach for its implementation This second edition is a major revision and update that offers practical and specific methods for developing and using CBAs in an educational setting It gives educators a highly specific step by step approach to building CBAs in the area of reading word recognition reading comprehension content reading mathematics and written expression Each chapter offers detailed easy to read and easy to follow instructions for the assessment construction process To further clarify the process extensive examples are given in table format A unique feature of the text is the manner in which the author illustrates the principles of CBA by providing a case study on one student which is referred to in each chapter Its formative assessment approach gives the teacher additional detailed information about students OCO performance which in turn should guide the type of instruction designed and implemented ultimately leading to higher performance on summative outcome measures Additionally detailed information is provided on subject area CBA construction the creation and implementation of a district wide CBA system for response to intervention and how to use IDEA S response to intervention in student evaluation
